Reflections on Identity in Four African Cities

Leilde, Anne, Bekker, Simon

Published by African Minds

Leilde, Anne and Simon Bekker.
Reflections on Identity in Four African Cities.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/16993.

For additional information about this book https://muse.jhu.edu/book/16993

For content related to this chapter https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=533138
Index

Page numbers in italics indicate figures and tables.

A
African identity
  continuing debate 207–209 debate in South Africa 209–210
  methodology of study 211, 223 opinions from Cape Town and Johannesburg 211–217 opinions from Gabon and Togo 217–221 African Renaissance 210, 213 afro-radicalism 208
Alexandra 65, 81, 179–180 apartheid
  construction of territorial identities 54, 55–58 Crossroads violence 98–100 effect on sphere of languages 176, 178 effect on urban demographics 26–27 migrant labour system 60–62 mobility patterns 69, 70–71 segregation in Johannesburg 122–125, 139 Soweto riots 57–58, 174 urban planning in Cape Town 28, 102–103, 148 urban planning in Johannesburg 32–33

C
Cape Flats 29, 102–103
Cape Town
  apartheid urban planning 102–103 demographic profile 28, 29, 34–35, 37, 38, 39, 40, 43, 148–149 domestic workers study 72–74, 77, 79, 82, 84, 85, 86, 93–94
  historical development 27, 28–29, 41
  local government 32
  opinions on Africa 212, 213–214, 215, 217 role of language in identity 182, 184–187, 188
244  Index

social and political history 175, 177–179
urban identity of middle class 152–158, 163
urban identity of urban poor 158–162, 163, 164 cities see urban development class versus race 5–6, 125, 127–134, 139, 141, 152–154, 164 collective identity 59, 60, 93–94 crime 129–130, 136–137
Crossroads 98–100
cultural identity 54, 154–158

D
District Six 102, 115n11, 176 divided city concept 147 domestic work
  background 69–70
devlopment of collective identity 93–94 effects of live-in system vs charring 70–75 growth in South Africa 75–77 issue of transport 80–83, 81 means of finding employment 83–87, 85 regulation and legislation 89–92 spatial segmentation 77, 78, 79, 80 working conditions 87–88, 88, 89 dual city concept 147, 149–151

E
ethnic identity 54, 56, 61
  see also cultural identity; territorial identity

G
Gabon
  see also Libreville
description 45, 49, 50, 211
languages 189, 190, 191–192, 192–193
opinions on South Africa 217–221, 221–222

H
housing see informal settlements; urban planning

I
identity
  see also African identity; class versus race; cultural identity; individual identity; languages;
territorial identity
  as concept 11–14, 53, 146
construction of 14–18, 53–54 qualitative research methodology 19–20 individual identity 59–62 informal settlements challenge of future 112–113
  Crossroads 98–100
growth in Johannesburg 137–140 issue of legal ownership 104–105

J
Johannesburg
demographic profile 34–35, 37, 38, 39, 40, 44, 148–149
domestic workers study 75–77, 78, 80, 81–82, 84–85, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 93
historical development 27, 28, 29–30, 42
local government 32–33
residents’ opinions on Africa 212–213, 214, 215–216
role of language in identity 179–183, 184, 188
social and political history 175, 176–177
territorial identity 63, 64–66
townships 56, 57–58
urban identity of middle class 151–158, 163
urban identity of urban poor 158–162, 163, 164 white middle-class study 121–143

K
  Khayelitsha 158, 173

L
  languages
distribution in Cape Town and Johannesburg 35, 39, 43, 44, 149 and identity 61
  impact of history 175–179, 175 importance of language identity in Cape Town and Johannesburg 155–156, 158, 162, 171–172, 179–188, 183, 187 importance of language identity in Lomé and Libreville 191–201 in Libreville 49–50, 50
  in Lomé 49, 50
methodology of language identity studies 173–174, 202–203, 202 social history in South Africa 174–175 Libreville

demographic profile 49–50, 50, 191–192
language policy 192–193
language research and analysis of data 193–201
language research methodology 202–203, 202
local government 47, 48
location and history 45–46
opinions on South Africa 217, 218–219, 220–221

local government
Libreville 47, 48
Lomé 47–48
South Africa 30–33

Lomé

demographic profile 48–49, 50, 191, 192
language policy 192–193
language research and analysis of data 193–201
language research methodology 202–203, 202
local government 47–48
location and history 46–47
opinions on South Africa 217–218, 219–220

M
Mandela, Nelson 210, 218–219, 220 Marconi Beam 113n2, 116n18, n19
see also Joe Slovo Park Mbeki, Thabo 210, 211
middle-class 147, 148, 150, 152–158, 163, 164 see also white middle-class study migrant labour system 60–62
municipalities see local government

N
nativism 207
NEPAD (New Partnership for Africa’s Development) 213, 218

P
PANSALB (Pan South African Language Board) 175, 179
Phoenix housing development 107, 110 population profiles
Cape Town and Johannesburg 34–35, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44
Libreville 49–50, 50
Lomé 48–49
R
racial identity
  see also class versus race among urban middle class 152–153, 163, 164 among urban poor 160–161, 164 historic 54–55
  racial classification 56
  under apartheid 122–125 religion
  identity 154–155, 156, 157

S
Sophiatown 65–66, 176
South Africa
  see also apartheid; Cape Town; Johannesburg
  local government 30–33
  opinions from Lomé and Libreville 217–221 post-apartheid 58–59
  South Africans’ views of Africa 211–217, 221 within Africa 209–211, 222 Soweto 57–58, 65, 67n2, 174, 180, 181–182 space
  see also territorial identity and individual identity 59–62 and politics 55–59

T
territorial identity
  as concept 54
  development and existence 63–66 space and individual identity 59–62 use of space by politics 55–59 Togo
  see also Lomé
  description 46, 48, 50, 211
  languages 189, 190, 191, 192
  opinions on South Africa 217–221, 221–222
  townships 56–58
    see also Alexandra; informal settlements; Joe Slovo Park; Sophiatown

U
urban development
  Cape Town and Johannesburg 26–30
  Libreville 49–50
Index

Lomé 48–49
post-apartheid vision 145
urban identities
  Cape Town and Johannesburg 148–151, 151–165 methodology of study of Cape Town and Johannesburg 166, 167, 168, 169 in United States 146–148
urban planning challenges 107–111
  example of Joe Slovo Park 97–98, 103, 105–107, 108–111 in new South Africa 104–105 problematic nature 97–101, 111–113 urban order to create social order 101–103 urban poor 158–162

W
white middle-class study (Johannesburg) apartheid context 122–125 growth of informal settlements 137–140 inner city change 134–137 issue of race versus class 126–134
  methodology of study 142–143
  working class 147, 148, 150

X
xenophobia 108, 214–215