Contents

Preface to the third edition v
Disclaimer vii
Abbreviations viii
Definitions ix

Summary and recommendations
- The right to a nationality in African laws 4
- Racial, ethnic and religious discrimination 5
- Gender discrimination 6
- Naturalisation 7
- Dual nationality 9
- Loss, deprivation and arbitrary non-recognition 9
- International norms 11
- Recommendations 13

International norms on nationality
- The right to a nationality and prohibition of statelessness 21
- Nationality in the context of state succession 29
- Deprivation or non-recognition of nationality and expulsion from a territory 30
- The jurisprudence of the African human rights bodies 33
- African states’ accession to international treaties 36

Nationality under colonial rule and the transition to independence 38
The basis of nationality law today 43
The right to a nationality in national law 45
Nationality based on birth in the territory 47
- Children of stateless parents or who would otherwise be stateless 49
- Foundlings or children of unknown parents 49
Nationality based on descent 53
Adopted children 57
Racial and ethnic discrimination 60
Gender discrimination 63
    Nationality of children 63
    Nationality based on marriage 65
    Partial reforms on gender equality in North Africa 70

Dual nationality 73

Naturalisation 80

Nationality requirements for public office 97
    Dual nationality 97
    Naturalised persons 98

Rights for the African diaspora 101
    Ethiopia 101
    Ghana 101

Loss and deprivation of nationality 103

Renunciation and reacquisition 112

Evidence and documentation 116
    Birth registration and evidence of entitlement to nationality 116
    Proof of nationality 118
    The right to a passport 121

State successions since independence 125
    Separation of part of a territory 125
    Transfers of territory 126

Naturalisation as a “durable solution” for refugees 128

Appendix: Legal sources 134

List of tables
Table 1: Right to nationality based on birth in the territory 50
Table 2: Right to nationality based on descent 54
Table 3: Right to nationality for adopted children 58
Table 4: Right to transmit nationality to a spouse 66
Table 5: Countries permitting and prohibiting dual nationality for adults 77
Table 6: Right to acquire nationality by naturalisation 86
Table 7: Criteria for loss of nationality 109
Table 8: Renunciation and reacquisition 113