List of plates

Plate 1  Nairobi: An African metropolis  136
Plate 2  A bird's-eye view of the African metropolis  137
Plate 3  An example of a slum settlement  138
Plate 4  City council-controlled and -serviced urban space  139
Plate 5  Mixed trade and residential space in self-developed urban areas  140
Plate 6  An area typical of the self-developed urban fringes  141
Plate 7  Traders, vehicles and pedestrians compete for space  142
Plate 8  Porters play a key role in transporting goods between the producers or wholesalers and the traders in the markets  143
Plate 9  A clothing market that sells both new and secondhand goods  144
Plate 10 Stalls selling wood, cosmetics, shoes and fresh produce  145
Plate 11 A trader selling wood, sand, bricks and other building materials from his yard  146
Plate 12 Selling sugar cane  147
Plate 13 Potable water for sale with fresh vegetables  148
Plate 14 Banana sellers outside an allocated market area  149
Plate 15 Scrap metal, secondhand tools and electrical equipment  150