INDEX

Note: page numbers in italics refer to illustrations.

abduction marriage, 222, 223
Abhinavagupta, 176
ABSCBN News, 127
Abu-Lughod, Lila, 7
actualization of the virtual body, 141, 165, 168n5
Adams, Vincanne, 18
adoption of children from global South, 289–90
adultery in Hmong diasporic video, 223–24 advertising: Chinese medicine and, 66; commodity yearning and, 181, 183, 200n13; consumer visibility and, 68; embodied life and, 60; for foreign brides, 118, 127, 137n12; libidinal economy and, 197; for The Twin Bracelets, 236; World’s Sexiest Advertisements (India), 1. See also commodity and consumption aesthetics of the commodity, 178–79, 185, 200n12, 307–8 affect, media, and erotics, 20–22, 178 Agamben, Giorgio, 171n30
agency: anthropology and, 56; fantasy and, 19–20; female sexual agency in Hmong diasporic video, 226–27; geishas and, 308; Indian women and erotic agency, 197; sex workers and erasure of collective agency, 281; third-world women, sex workers, and perceptions of, 16, 294n24 Ahmed, Sara, 21–22
airport as metaphor in Miguel/Michelle, 49–50 Algerian women, postcards of, 303, 315
alibi, ethnographic, 303
Alisjahbana, Sutan Takdir, 109n8
Allison, Anne, 4, 19
Aloulou, Malek, 210, 297, 302–3, 315
aliteny: difference and distance in encounter with, 314; documentary imperative and, 27; Orientalism and alterity of the self, 298; theoretical overemphasis on, 10
Amnesty International Companion Curriculum guide, 293n19
Anderson, Benedict, 115
Ang, Ien, 38
Appadurai, Arjun: classism and, 293n19; on consumption, 177; on ephemerality, 73n6; on imagination and migration, 21; on Internet, 115; on interocular fields, 184–85; “neighborhoods,” 69 archipelago concept (wawasan nusantara), Indonesia, 80, 90 area studies, institutionalization of, 13–14
art constructed as transformation, 293n19
Asia: eroticization of, 3; new media and construction of, 16–18; as node of production and circulation, 8–9; production of, 13–16; “rising” discourse, 3. See also specific topics and places
Asian Brides Online, 118
Asian studies, 13–15
audience reception: deconstruction of, 38; dynamic view of, 35–36; Hmong diasporic video and, 224–27; Miguel/Michelle and, 35–36, 37–39; pleasure in nonfiction reading and knowledge, 54; reductionism, awareness of, 59; spectatorship concept vs. engaged knowledge, 37–38. See also specific works Australian aboriginal peoples, 296n55 authenticity: Baudrillard’s simulacra and, 168n4; diasporic return and masculine authenticity, 35; informant voice and, 54; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 297, 301, 302–5, 317–18; Miguel/Michelle and, 45; queer authenticity and the West, 44; smiling in China and, 147; The Twin Bracelets and, 234, 238–39, 244–45, 246, 259–60 authority: interactive documentary and, 275; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 302, 304; nationalism, love, and, 82; Orientalism and, 298, 311; self-health advice and, 65; “speaking softly” and, 157; Wong’s mock website and undermining of, 113

Bagdikian, Ben, 6
bakla. See Miguel/Michelle (film) and Filipino bakla Banerjee, Partha, 267 bare life, 164, 171n30
Baricco, Alessandro, 301–2, 311–12, 317
Barthes, Roland, 318, 320n9
Basinger, Kim, 44, 47
Bass, Ron, 309
Baudrillard, Jean, 141, 168n4, 218
“bay agmo,” 129, 131
beauty parlors, queer, 44
bedchamber arts, Daoist, 169n12 belonging: Indian nationalism and, 175; Indonesian gay zines and, 76–78, 82–83, 94–102, 106–7; media and unanticipated forms of, 22; postcolonial societies and, 109n9; social knowledge in India and, 183. See also nationalisms
Benedict, Ruth, 320n2
Berry, Chris, 8, 265n21
betweenness, 101–2
Bhabha, Homi, 309
bhakti poetry, 176
Bharata, 176
Bishop, Ryan, 17
body: affect, media, and erotics, 20–22; collective vs. personal, in China, 149–50; diasporic transformation and, 41; discomfort, home, and location in Miguel/Michelle, 40–49; incorporeal erotics and, 20–21; language, bodying of, 148–51; listening as way of attending to, in China, 156–57; making up the geisha and concealing vs. exposing, 314–16; media consumption, bodied, 21–22; modernity and returnee bodies in Miguel/Michelle, 40–43; nonphallocentric eroticism and the Body without organs, 164–65; striptease and de-eroticization of nakedness, 320n9; tongue diagnosis in Chinese medicine, 73n10; travelers and sexed bodies, 309; Treat’s Great Mirrors Shattered and, 310–11; virtuality vs. actuality and, 141. See also Whispering Tonight (radio) and Chinese sexology Boellstorff, Tom, 5, 19–20, 263n6
Bollywood films, 188–89, 192–93 border crossing: airport metaphor and, 49–50; cultural difference vs., 18; erotic as produced at, 5–6; exotic escape and, 300; geek figure and, 16; Memoirs of a Geisha and play with exotic-self border, 315; place-making through, 2; wayward erotics, 37, 42, 49–50. See also Hmong diasporic video Born into Brothels (film) and sex-worker communities in Kolkata, India: awards, accolades, and reviews, 270–71; Briski as “Zana Auntie” in, 282–84; consuming Orientalist gaze, 289; context, 267–70; darkness and light, use of, 284;

Bosk, Charles, 148

Bourdieu, Pierre, 70

Breckenridge, Carol, 184–85

Briski, Zana, 268–71, 275–79, 282–85, 295n40. See also Born into Brothels

Bush, George W., 271, 293n9

Butler, Judith, 168n6

Calcutta (Kolkata), India. See Born into Brothels

Canadian indigenous peoples, 296n55

Cao, Dr., 165

capitalism: biology of sex and, 69; China and, 57; desiring production and, 141–42, 158, 168n6; fragmenting and flattening pressures of, 66; India and, 186, 273; Maoism and, 170n25; new media and, 7; Orientalism and, 319. See also commodity and consumption caste, 179–83, 196

censorship, 1, 83, 86, 120

center-periphery, 8, 150–51

Chang, Eileen, 265n24

Chauncy, George, 228, 236

Cheshire, Godfrey, 233–34

childhood same-sex intimacy, 247–49

children and rescue narratives. See Born into Brothels

China: consumer revolution in, 142–43; Great Famine (1959–61), 171n31; homo- sexual subculture in, 265n20; “internal Orientalism” in, 144; Internet censorship and, 1; media reforms in, 139; Mao in, 205, 230n5; migrant workers in, 157–58; “nurturing life” (yangsheng) ideology, 64, 169n16; Pearl River Delta region, 249, 258; same-sex relationships in, 170n22; sex-education literature in, 169n10; utopian polygamy in late imperial fiction, 264n13. See also Chinese popular self-health (ziwo baojian) media

China, Maoist vs. post-Maoist: body and sex, attitudes toward, 146; coding and decoding of desire, 158–59; collective body vs. personal body, 149–50; consumer revolution, 168n9; desire (yu) and moral economy of seminal essence (jing), 151–52, 169n19; media reforms and changes, 142, 148; radio listening and, 157–58; smiles, bodily discipline, and commercialization of the body, 147

China Part 3 (video), 208–9

Chinese call-in radio. See Whispering Tonight (radio) and Chinese sexology

Chinese medicine, traditional, 63–66, 73n10, 74n15, 165

Chinese popular self-health (ziwo baojian) media: bookstore scenario, 53–54, 58–60, 71–72; cultural imperialism and, 68–70; health as self-cultivation and, 67–68; history, nostalgia, and, 70–72; “how to find a doctor” guides, 74n15; methodological issues in studying, 54–57; pop psychology (Xinlixue) and universalizing discourse, 60–63; reading pleasure and, 60; representation and, 58–59; self-building and, 72; television and, 74n18; traditional Chinese medicine popularization vs. the esoteric other, 63–66

choice: consumer revolution in China and, 142–43; love and, 82–83, 217; market “freedom” and, 7; marriage and, 109n8, 132, 133–34, 260; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 301, 308; national belonging and, in Indonesia, 101; sex workers and, 281;
choice (cont.)

_The Twin Bracelets_ and, 242, 258–59, 260

Chow Yun-fat, 265n24

Christian conservative movement, 271, 283, 289–90 citizenship: American anxiety rhetoric and protection of, 272; area studies and, 14; Euroamerican heteronormativity and, 109n9; Filipino returnees and, 40; Indonesian _gay_ and _lesbi_ zines, love, and sexual citizenship, 77, 83, 100–107, 102, 103, 105; Indonesian _gay and lesbi_ zines, _prestasis_, and, 97–100; Indonesian national love and, 82; in Maoist China, 67, 153, 171n30; _Memoirs of a Geisha_ and, 300. See also _nationalisms_ class: art as transformation and, 293n19; commodity desire and, in India, 179–84; desire shaped by, 163; desiring and social production in China and, 154–55; impotence and, in China, 163–64; transnational television in India and, 195
Clifford, James, 5, 34
clinical actuality and media virtuality, 140–43 coding, decoding, and recoding: Deleuze and Guattari on, 170n21; desiring production in China and, 155–56, 161; historicity of desire and, 158–59
Cohen, Robin, 34
Columbus, Christopher, 32on2
“Combat Doc,” 129, 133
commodity aesthetics, 178–79, 185, 200n12, 307–8 commodity affect, 178 commodity and consumption: _Born into Brothels_ and paradox of erotic consumption and judgment, 273–74; browsing the commodity space and imaginative travel, 178; China and commercialization of the body, 147, 162, 167; Chinese call-in radio show and, 142; Chinese medicine and, 65–66; conceptions of, 177; cultural imperialism and, 68–69; diasporic return, modern fashionability, and, 40–41; esoteric other produced by, 66; history and, 71; India and, 178–88, 198; of Indonesian _gay_ zines, 80; traditional vs. mass-market medicine in China, 63–66 condom “Kamasutra” (ks), 185–86

Conquergood, Dwight, 207
cosmopolitan, 176

cultural difference: boundary blurring and, 18; boundary marking and, 5; _Memoirs of a Geisha_ and, 298, 313, 315, 318–19; reification of, 2, 23; Said on, 319
cultural imperialism, 6, 68–70
cultural studies and textuality, 24–25
culture, dilemma of study of, 55–56
Cunningham, Stuart, 8
cybersex, 21
Daniel, E. Valentine, 26
daoism, 169n12
darkness and light, use of, 284
Das, Veena, 169n14
Davis, Deborah, 168n9

critical approach to popular culture, 56–57
critical regionalism, 30n15
cross-dressing, 44, 45, 191
cruising in Hmong diasporic video, 209 Csordas, Thomas, 156–57
cultural difference: boundary blurring and, 18; boundary marking and, 5; _Memoirs of a Geisha_ and, 298, 313, 315, 318–19; reification of, 2, 23; Said on, 319
cultural imperialism, 6, 68–70
cultural studies and textuality, 24–25
culture, dilemma of study of, 55–56

Cunningham, Stuart, 8
cybersex, 21
Daniel, E. Valentine, 26
daoism, 169n12
darkness and light, use of, 284
Das, Veena, 169n14
Davis, Deborah, 168n9
Deewane deewane to deewane hain (music video; Shwetta Shetty, Magnasound), 190–91
Deleuze, Gilles, 141–42, 158–59, 162, 166, 168n5–6, 170n21
Dell, Heather, 5 desire: Allison on, 4; commodity and erotic desires conflated in India, 180–81; from Deleuzian perspective, 170n27; to desire, 181; erotic desire and desire for knowledge, 28–29; fantasy and, 19; historicity of, 158–59, 163–64, 166; Indonesian gay zines and displacement of, 88–89; pleasure vs., 166–67; returnee figure and, 41; seduction vs., 218; yue concept in China, 151–52, 265n23 desiring production: China, social production, recoding, and, 153–56, 158–59, 161–62; Deleuze and Guattari on, 168n6; limits of, 164–65; social production and, 141–42 diaspora: limits of, 48–49; traditional masculinist and heteronormative constructions of, 34–35 diasporic return, queer: Carlo’s story, 33; erotics and, 36–37; Filipino patterns of, 35; Filipino queer audience and, 37–39; gendered identities and, 44–49; modernity vs. tradition and returnee bodies, 40–43; wayward erotics and, 37, 42, 49–50 diasporic video, Hmong. See Hmong diasporic video differentiation, 141, 158, 168n5
di Leonardo, Micaela, 15 discovery, 86, 89–90, 92
disguise, trope of, 316–17 distant intimacy: erotic epistemology and, 29; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 314, 317; Orientalism and, 309; in Treat, Loti, and Baricco, 313 documentary, 27, 275–76, 290. See also Born into Brothels documentary imperative, 27–28
dowries, 184
Dr. Tom video series. See under Hmong diasporic video Duara, Prasenjit, 14
dui pnua (companion) bonds, 238, 243–47, 249, 259
Durbar Mahila Samanwaya Committee (the Unstoppable Women’s Coordinating Committee), 269, 270, 279, 280, 281, 285–88, 286, 291, 294n32, 296n50
Dwyer, Rachel, 188–89, 192–93, 200n10
education of sex workers’ children, 283–85, 286–88 Elliston, Deborah, 254
enunciation, textuality and politics of, 24–25
episodic sexuality, 210
epistemology. See knowledge and epistemology erotics: Asia, eroticization of, 3; conceptions of, 173–74; definitions of, 36; desire for knowledge and, 28–29; diasporic return and, 36–37; incorporeal, 20–21; nonphallocentric eroticism and the Body without organs, 164–65; nonverbal, nonvisible expressions of, 174; race, nation, gender, and sex, articulations of, 11–13; theorization of, 9–11; wayward, 37, 42, 49–50 escapism, exotic, 314
essentialism: China and, 69; Chinese sexology and, 143, 144; correspondence marriage and, 133–34; India and, 198; mail-order brides and, 112, 113; Orientalism and, 298, 305, 319; universalization vs., 55
ethics, 27–28, 167, 174 ethnicity: China and ethnic minorities, 144; Indonesian gay zines and de-emphasis of, 96–97, 109n14; solidarity and, 207 ethnocentrism, 10 ethnography, 23, 54–57. See also methodological issues ethnolocality, 93
ethnotextual approaches, 25–27, 116, 205–6, 229, 240
Euroamerica. See United States; “West,” the, and Euroamerica evolution, social, 10 exoticism: Asia as site of sexual exotic, 11, 15; escapism, exotic, 314; mail-order brides and, 125; theoretical overemphasis on, 10. See also Memoirs of a Geisha; Orientalism extended natalocal residence, 263n8 eyes as rhetorical device in Memoirs of a Geisha, 306
fads, 55–56, 60–61
family: Asian women and “family values” stereotypes, 112, 127, 130, 132; Berry on gay characters and, 265n21; in Bollywood films, 192–93; Born into Brothels and, 279, 282–83, 289; in India, 180, 182–84, 192–96, 199n1, 201n21; Indian television and, 199n1, 201n21; The Twin Bracelets and, 238; virtual, 120, 123–24 fantasy: desire and, 19; exotic escape and, 300; harlequin romances and, 320n7; Hmong diaspora and, 223; Memoirs of a Geisha, history, and, 317–18; Miguel/Michelle and mobility through, 48; nostalgia and, in Hmong diasporic video, 215–17; transnational media, desire, and, 19–20 Farquhar, Judith, 166–67, 169n10
fashion, modernity, and diasporic return, 40 fatness, 41
femininity: Asian as hyperfeminine, 12; Briski and, 295n40; the erotic and construction of, 12, 36; in Hmong diasporic video, 212–13, 215; homeland and, 228; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 307, 316; sex workers and, 278; Western vs. Asian, 119; Wong’s mock website and, 113
feminism: Asian women contrasted with, 119; the erotic and, 10; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 316; on tradition, 195–96; trafficking law and, 272; The Twin Bracelets and, 238, 239, 242–43; Wong and, 113 Filipino bakla. See Miguel/Michelle (film) and Filipino bakla film festivals, 233
Fire (film), 29n2, 197–98, 263n10, 264n18
flowers as lesbi symbols in Indonesia, 87
Fortier, Anne-Marie, 45, 46
Foucault, Michel: on intimacy and selfhood, 201n20; on masturbation, 152–53; on pleasure and desire, 166, 167, 171n37; on truth, 316
Frank, Katherine, 320n6

ganqing (“affection” or “feelings”), 255
Gay Betawi. See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines GAYa Lestari. See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines
GAYa Nusantara. See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines Gaya Pandanaran (k–79). See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines GAYa Priangan. See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines gay as term in Indonesia, 76
“gay” cinema, 37
Gayen, Swapna, 267
gay men. See homosexuality and same-sex erotics gay zines, Indonesian. See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines gaze: Born into Brothels and, 274–76, 289; complication of Western gaze, 16; Hmong diasporic video and male gaze, 208–10. See also voyeurism Geetha, V., 184, 199n4
gender: commodity desire in India and, 183–84; correspondence marriage and, 116–17; erotics, relationship with, 12–13; gay Indonesians and, 83; Hmong diasporic video and, 205, 208–10, 225–26, 228; Memoirs of a Geisha and unsettled binarism, 316; Miguel/Michelle, gendered selfhood and body/home discomfort in, 45–49; Orientalist erotics and reorganization of, 321n12; transnational television in India and, 195–96, 201n18
geographies and spatiality: Asia and hegemonic modes of spatial production, 14; deterterritorialization and rerterritorialization, 159, 166; diasporic return and, 38; new media and, 17; queer spaces in Miguel/Michelle, 44; transnational media, restructuring of, 5 Gere, Richard, 1
*g: Gaya Hidup Ceria. See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines ghazal, 176 Giddens, Anthony, 202n24, 210
Ginsburg, Faye, 7
Gitagovinda (Jayadeva), 176
globalization: China, cultural imperialism, and, 68–70; diasporic return, hometown anxiety, and, 43; homogenization and, 23; India and, 186, 198, 199n5; Indonesian gay zines and, 94; PhotoVoice and, 277; of queer sexualities and gay culture, 11, 37–38; “rising” Asia and, 3; U.S. anxiety over, 272–73. See also commodity and consumption global queer consciousness: Indonesian gay zines and, 94–95
Gonzalez, Vernadette, 112, 114, 136n2
goodwife.com, 117
Gopinath, Gayatri, 11, 264n18
Greater China cinema, 235. See also Twin Bracelets, The Great Mirrors Shattered (Treat), 301–2, 308–9, 310–11, 313, 317
Grewal, Inderpal, 7
Griffiths, Philip Jones, 276
Guang jiao jing (Wide angle), 263n9
Guattari, Félix, 141–42, 158–59, 162, 168n6, 170n21
Gupta, Akhil, 7
habit and history as resistance, 70–71
Hagedorn, Jessica, 49
Halberstam, Judith, 50
Hall, Lesley, 153
Halperin, David, 206
haptic visuality, 30n20
Hasratin (Zee TV), 193–94, 202n23
Haug, Wolfgang Fritz, 178–79, 185, 200n12 health literature, popular. See Chinese popular self-health (ziwo baojian) media herbal medicine, Chinese, 63–64
Hershatter, Gail, 157 heteronormativity: diaspora constructions from, 34–35; European origins of nationalist ideology of, 109n9; India and, 176, 200n10; Indonesian cinta (love) and, 83
heteropatriarchal discourses, 200n10
Hindi (Bollywood) films, 188–89, 192–93
Hirschkind, Charles, 156 history and historicity: China and resistance of, 70–72; desire, historicity of, 158–59, 163–64; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 302, 317–18. See also nostalgia Hmong diasporic video: Asian women and semiotics of the male gaze in China Part 3, 208–10; Hmong migration and nostalgia touring, 203–5, 228; homeland traffic as text in Dr. Tom, 210–15, 212, 214; marital culture of courtship and marriage in Dr. Tom III, 222–24; media, diaspora, and solidarity, 207–8; moral ambiguity and media’s multivalence in Dr. Tom II and III, 219–22; nostalgia and mediated fantasy of recovery in Dr. Tom, 215–17; seductive emigration in Dr. Tom, 217–18; subject formation and ethnotextual reading of, 205–6, 228–29; women’s mirth and audience reception of Dr. Tom series and Niam a Kaj, 224–27
Ho, Josephine, 12
home and homeland: gender binary and, 228; globalization and hometown anxiety, 43; homeland erotics, 36–37; remaking, continual, 49; situated event, home as, 46. See also diasporic return, queer; Hmong diasporic video “Homesick” (Hagedorn), 49 homosexuality and same-sex erotics: in China, 170n22; Chinese mainstream culture and, 265n20; as cinematically constructed, 251–52; developmental narrative of sexual identity, 250; identification vs. nostalgic distancing and, 257–60; in India, 191, 200n10; Indonesian gay zines on “traditional” homosexualities and transgenderisms, 93–94; Mehta’s Fire and, 264n18; patriarchal privilege upheld by stereotypes of parental unfitness, 295n135; practice homosexuality and same-sex erotics (cont.)
and identity, tension between, 250–57, 265n21; qing (feeling) vs. yu (desire) in Chinese literature, 265n23; as reaction to oppression, 250; as scale, 255; school-age and military bonds, 247–49, 264n14; T and po female gender divisions in Taiwan, 264n17; tongzhi identification, 247–49; Treat’s Great Mirrors Shattered and, 308–9, 310–11.
See also Indonesian gay and lesbi zines; Twin Bracelets, The Honig, Emily, 157 hooks, bell, 314
Hottentot Venus, 10
Huang Yushan, 241–43, 254, 258, 263n11
Hudson, Chris, 113
Hui’an, China, 234, 237, 263n8. See also Twin Bracelets, The human trafficking, concerns over, 272 Hwang, David, 310
hypersexuality, 10, 12, 88, 101–2 identity politics, 15, 257, 321n11 imagined communities, 90, 115–16. See also marriage, correspondence Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), 123, 126, 136n9, 223 imperialism. See neocolonialism and neoimperialism impotence, 145, 160, 164–65
incest, accusations of, 278
“independent transnational film,” 228–29
India: Bollywood films, 188–89, 192–93; case of Omvati’s family, 179–81; case of Prabhakar, 182–83; censorship in, 1; colonial condemnation over prostitution, 295n38; commodity and erotic yearnings conjoined in, 178–84; economic policy in, 186; family as theme in, 192–93; genealogies of the erotic in, 175–78; Indi-pop music videos, 190–91; international marketplace and, 273; intertextual field and representation of commodities and erotics in, 184–86; Mandal Commission Bill (1990), 179; protests around film Fire and Miss World pageant, 299n2, 197–98; serials, 191–92, 193–95, 201n21; talk shows, 189–90; televisual eroticization of the intimate in, 188–96; tradition, “Indian culture,” and Westernization discourses, 186–87, 195–96, 197–98, 200n16; transnational television and consumerist desire in, 186–88; women, portrayals of, 191–92. See also Born into Brothels
Indo-Islamic traditions, 176
Indonesia, 82, 109n10, 110n16
Indonesian gay and lesbi zines: about, 77–80; circulation of, 108n4; continuity in thematics of, 79; definitions, 76, 77; discovery and recognition in, 86, 89–90, 92–93; gay networks and, 75–76, 80; homosex zone in, 83–86, 84, 85, 87; on Internet, 108n1; love (cinta) and nationalism linked in, 81–83; love (cinta) and sexual citizenship as interzone in, 100–107, 102, 103, 105; love (cinta) valorized over sex in, 86–89, 89, 91; mass media, relationship with, 108n5; national belonging and, 95–100; nationalism in names of, 80–81; national sexualities zone in, 93–95; prestasis (visible practice) and citizenship in, 76, 97–100; separation theme in, 90–93, 102–5 informants, empathetic engagement with, 39
International Festival of Lesbian and Gay Films (New York), 233
International Monetary Fund, 186
Internet: censorship in China, 1; Indonesian gay zines on, 108n1; inequalities reproduced online, 136n2; listserves, 120–27; oppositional space created by, 135; visual identities and, 17; Web 1.0 and 2.0, 114. See also marriage, correspondence; new media interocular fields, 184–85
intertextualities, 100–101, 184–87 intimacy: distant, 29, 309, 313, 314, 317; India and eroticization of, 188–96; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 313–17; reconfiguration of the intimate and the proximate, 228, 236; selfhood and, 201n20 isolation, 90
itinerant ethnography, 23, 114
Iwasaki Mineko, 304, 305, 320n5
Jaka. See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines
Jaka-Jaka. See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines
Japan: American consciousness of, 299; Baricco’s Silk and, 311–12; Loti’s Madame Chrysantheme and, 309–10, 312–13; Treat’s Great Mirrors Shattered and, 310–11, 313. See also Memoirs of a Geisha Jayadeva, 176
jiemei fuqi (“sister-husband and sister-wife”), 234, 243–44, 251–52
John, Mary E., 174–75, 181–82, 186
Jolly, Margaret, 15, 199n5
Justajoo (Zee TV), 201n21
k-79 (Gaya Pandanaran). See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines Kalidasa, 176
Kamasutra, 176, 185–86, 199n7
Kapoor, Shammi, 201n18
Kauffman, Ross, 270, 271
Kelsky, Karen, 21–22
Kempadoo, Kamala, 294n24
Khan, Salman, 201n18
Kher, Kiron, 190
King, Larry, 320n11
Kleinman, Arthur, 171n36 knowledge and epistemology: commodified medicine vs. the esoteric other in China, 65–66; culturally knowledgeable, engaged audiences, 38; erotic, epistemological, 28–29; foreign travel and epistemological urge, 309; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 303, 317–18; pleasure in reading and, 54, 60; popular culture study and, 56
Kolkata, India. See Born into Brothels
Koltyk, Jo Ann, 207
Kuklick, Henrika, 27
Kumarasambhava (Kalidasa), 176
Kuntsman, Adi, 46
Lancaster, Roger, 15
language: bodying the language, 148–51; Indonesian gay zines and, 109n13; Indonesian nationalism and, 93
Laos as Hmong homeland, 204, 221, 223
Laplanche, Jean, 19
Laqueur, Thomas, 153
Larkin, Brian, 7
Lat, Visuck, 129, 131, 132
Lefebvre, Henri, 14
lesbians. See homosexuality and same-sex erotics lesbi zines, Indonesian. See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines Levine, Philippa, 295n38
Lévi-Strauss, Claude: on old bachelors, 170n28
Lianhe bao, 242
Lianhe wenxue, 241
liberal pragmatism: correspondence marriage and, 129–30
Liechty, Mark, 5
Life, Reproduction, and Everyday Life (Chinese TV), 140 listening as somatic mode of attention, 156–59
listserves, 120–27
Liu, Lydia, 73n4
Livingstone, Jeannie, 320n6
Li Yinhe, 265n20
localism: ethnolocality, 93; local culture generated through spectatorship, 259–60; as reaction to globalization, 69–70
Lock, Margaret, 69
Lombardi, Fred, 250
Loti, Pierre, 301–2, 309–10, 312–13
love: commodity desire as unrequited love, 181; correspondence marriage narratives of, 125–26; Hmong marriage and, 216–17; Indonesian gay and lesbi zines, separation, and, 92; Indonesian gay and lesbi zines, sexual citizenship, and, 100–107, 102, 103, 105; Indonesian gay zines, love valorized over sex in, 86–89, 89, 91; Indonesian gay zines, nationalism, and, 81–83; in Indonesian literature, 82
Lu Zhaohuan, 240–42, 264n11
Ma, Dr., 139–40, 145, 149, 151, 152, 153, 154, 159. See also Whispering Tonight (radio) and Chinese sexology
MacDonald, Jeffrey, 207
Madame Chrysantème (Loti), 301–2, 309–10
Madonna, 315–16, 320n11 magazines: Chinese postsocialist modernity in, 70; global culture and, 68; Indian, 185. See also Indonesian gay and lesbi zines Mahler, Sarah, 116
“mail-order brides.” See marriage, correspondence
Malinowsky, Bronislaw, 18
Manalansan, Martin, 250
Manderson, Lenore, 250
Mankekar, Purnima, 36, 39, 226
Marcus, George, 23
Marks, Laura, 30n20
marriage: by abduction, 222, 223; class and, in China, 162; extended natalocal residence, 263n8; Hmong diaspora and, 204, 208, 220, 222–24; Indonesian gay men and, 93; monogamy, 223–24; sexual and economic dimensions of, 133–34; The Twin Bracelets (film) and, 241, 250 marriage, correspondence: countererotic narratives, 113, 118–19, 124–27; deceitful woman trope, 127–28; Internet and imagined virtual communities, 115–16, 135; introduction-agency websites, 116–19; law against advertising in Philippines, 127; listserves, private, 119–27; “mail-order brides” term criticized, 132; neocolonialism, liberal pragmatism, and good-old-boy stance, critiques of, 128–31; newsgroup discussions, 127–33; “Pinay Brides” article on, 127–28; popular and scholarly literature on, 111–12; self-policing in virtual communities, 120–21, 137n10; sex tourism, distancing from, 112–13, 121–22; sexual and economic dimensions of marriage and, 133–34; stereotypes of Asian women and, 112; as “trafficking,” 111, 127, 132–33; women’s voices, absence of, 132–33; Wong’s mock mail-order bride website, 17, 113
Marshall, Rob, 297
Martin, Fran, 8, 261
masculinity: diaspora formulated around, 34–35; the erotic and construction of, 12, 36; Hmong diasporic video and, 209–10, 219, 225, 227; premature ejaculation and, 155 masks, 301
Massey, Doreen, 116
Massumi, Brian, 20–22, 200
masturbation, 151–52, 161–62
Mayo, Katherine, 295n38
McChesney, Robert, 7
McDonald’s in China, 68
McKnight, William, 127, 131
meaning-making, 26, 55–56 media, transnational: cultural imperialism and, 6; neoliberalism and, 7; new media era, emergence of, 7–8; powered structure of, 6; scale jumping and, 9; spatial reconfiguration and, 4–6 media consumption, 20–22
Media k16: GAya Celebes. See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines media virtuality and clinical actuality, 140–43 medicine. See Chinese popular self-health (ziwo baojian) media; Whispering Tonight (radio) and Chinese sexology Mehta, Deepa, 29n2, 264n18
Memoirs of a Geisha (Golden) and Oriental Japan: artifice and truth in, 316–17; Baricco’s Silk and, 311–12, 317; film adaptation, 297, 319n1; historicity, learning, and, 317–18; intimacy and distance in, 313–17, 318–19; Loti’s Madame Chrysantème and, 309–10; novel medium, 300; Orientalist question and, 298–301, 309, 313–14, 318; realness and, 302–5; story, 305–8; “Translator’s Note,” 303–4; Treat’s Great Mirrors Shattered and, 308–9, 310–11, 317; voice in, 304 memory as other of the global, 71 methodological issues: cultural, epistemological, and critical approaches to popular media, 54–57; cultural difference vs. media mobility, 23–24; empiricism vs. ethics, 27–28; erotic desire and desire for knowledge, 28–29; ethnotextual approaches, 25–27; subjectivity and, 72n1; textuality and cultural studies, 24–25
Miah, Andy, 21
Miao, 205, 230n5
Miao, Cora, 265n24
Michaels, Eric, 263n4
migration: China, migrant workers in, 157–58; of Filipinos, 35–37, 51n3; of Hmong, 203–8, 217–18; Indonesian GAYa and, 81; social imagination and, 21; U.S. immigration process, 122–23, 136n9. See also diasporic return, queer; Hmong diasporic video; marriage, correspondence; Miguel/Michelle (film)
Miguel/Michelle (film) and Filipino bakla
Miguel/Michelle (film) and Filipino bakla: about, 34; diasporic return theme, 34–35, 46; gendered identities and erotic location in, 44–49; genre and, 39; limits of queer diaspora in, 48–49; modernity and returnee bodies in, 40–43; queer audience and, 37–39; wayward erotics in, 37, 42, 49–50
Miller, Toby, 6
Miss World pageant (Bangalore, 1996), 197–98
MitraS. See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines mobilities: affect and, 22; cultural difference vs. media mobility, 23–24; fantasy and, 48; locational identity vs. “in transit,” 38; media, eroticism, and, 18; in Miguel/Michelle, 47–49. See also border crossing; diasporic return, queer; migration modernity: airport metaphor and, 49–50; China and, 70; commodity desire and, in India, 180–81; diaspora construction and, 34–35; homosexuality associated with, 256; India, commodity desire and, 187–88; Indonesian heteronormativity and, 83; non-Euroamerican location of, 43; photography and, 275; pop psychology and, 62; returnee bodies in Miguel/ Michelle and, 40–43
Mohanty, Chandra, 294n24
monogamy, 223–24
Monteiro, Anjali, 201n20
moralism: Christian moral panics, 271; commodity desire in India and, 183–84; de-eroticized mother vs. fallen woman as binary, 278–81; Hmong diasporic video and, 219–20, 224; Maoist, 142. See also Born into Brothels
Morley, David, 4–5
Mother India (Mayo), 295n38
Moua, Ga, 211, 213, 214, 219–20, 224–25, 230n9
music videos, Indian, 190–91
Naficy, Hamid, 228–29
Nakamura, Lisa, 17
nationalisms: commodity desire in India and, 183–84; correspondence marriage and, 128–29; gendered sexuality and, 12; Hindu, 196; Indonesian gay and lesbi zines and, 80–83, 93–100; public sphere and, 9. See also citizenship
National Sex Workers’ Conference (India), 280
Natyashastra (Bharata), 176, 199n8
Navarro, Frank, 131
neocolonialism and neoimperialism: Born into Brothels and, 271–73, 276–77, 282–83; colonial division of labor and, 273; correspondence marriage and, 128–29; cultural imperialism, 6, 68–70; erotic imperialism, 261; Memoirs of a Geisha and imperialist nostalgia, 318; Orientalism and, 301; white woman’s burden and, 282–83. See also Orientalism; postcolonialism neoliberalism and transnational media, 7
New Jaka-Jaka. See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines new media: and Asia, construction of, 16–18; era, emergence of, 7–8; Hmong diasporic video and, 229n4. See also Internet Niam a kaj (“Mail-order bride,” Thao), 225–26
Nietzsche, Friedrich, 150
nonphallocentric eroticism, 164–65
norms, normativity, and normality: abnormality and visibility, 72; Chinese sex-norms, normativity, and normality (cont.)

ology and, 143–44, 159–63; in Chinese society, 74n21; health cultivation and, 67; heteronormativity, 34–35, 83, 109n9, 176, 200n10; Indonesian gay national belonging and, 101–2, 103; listening and, in China, 158; psychology and, 63 nostalgia: Hmong diasporic video and, 215–17; Hmong nostalgia touring, 203–4; as ideological, 215; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 301, 318; as resistance, 70–71; The Twin Bracelets (film) and, 257–60.

See also history and historicity novel as medium, 300, 302

Oetomo, Dédé, 93–94, 99

Ong, Aihwa, 7

operada. See Miguel/Michelle (film) and Filipino bakla

oppositional culture, 305

Ordonez, Raquel Z., 137n12

Orientalism: Baricco’s Silk and, 312; Born into Brothels and erotic consumption of Asia, 273–74, 289; defined, 298–99; distant intimacy and, 309; Hmong diasporic video and, 209–10; “internal,” in China, 144; “Kamasutra” (ks) condom and, 185–86; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 298–301, 309, 313–14, 318; oppositional culture as corrective to, 305; reorganized gendering of, 321n12; reversal of, 311; Said on, 298, 304, 310; Treat’s Great Mirrors Shattered and, 308–9, 311. See also neocolonialism and neoimperialism

Otap, Two, 131

Otis, Eileen, 147

Page, David, 201n23

parental fitness narratives, 277–78

Pearl River Delta region, China, 249, 258

penile venoligation, 171n34

performativities: disguise, trope of, 316–17; drag balls and, 320n6; love and choice in Indonesia, 82–83; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 316; prestand (visible practice) in Indonesia, 76, 97–100

Pessar, Patricia, 116

Philippines: law against advertising for foreign brides, 127; migration of Filipinos, 35–37, 51n3. See also marriage, correspondence; Miguel/Michelle (film) and Filipino bakla photography, 54, 274–76

PhotoVoice, 276–77

Pigg, Stacey, 18

“Pinay Brides—Internet’s Hottest Commodities” (ABS-CBN News), 127–28

pleasure: desire vs., 166; Foucault on, 166–67, 171n37; nonfiction reading and, 54, 60 polygamy, “utopian,” 264n13

polygyny, Hmong, 223–24

Pontalis, Jean-Bertrand, 19

popular culture and media: cultural, epistemological, and critical approaches to, 54–57; second person in popular nonfiction, 74n12. See also Chinese popular self-health (ziwo baojian) media pornography, Tu on, 17

Portes, Gil, 34, 50n2

postcards of Algerian women, 303, 315

postcolonialism, 101, 132

poststructuralist theory and erotics, 9

Potts, Annie, 164–65

"poverty pornography,” 276

Povinelli, Elizabeth, 228, 236

power: correspondence marriage and gendered geographies of, 116–17; Orientalism and, 298, 304; transnational media study and, 6

premarital and extramarital erotics in Indian serials, 193–94 premature ejaculation, 155–56

prestand (visible practice), 76, 97–100

prostitution. See Born into Brothels; sex workers and prostitution

"Prostitution Loyalty Oath,” 272

psychology, popular, in China, 60–63

public sphere and nation, 9

Parush Kshetra (“Man’s World,” El TV), 189–90

qigong, 169n16

Qing cheng zhi lian (“Love in a fallen city,” film), 265n24 race and racism: Born into Brothels and, 271, 282–83, 284, 289–90; in diasporic Western and gay Asian contexts, 12; “white woman’s burden” and material imperialism, 282–83 radio. See Whispering Tonight (radio) and Chinese sexology Radway, Janice, 226, 307, 320n7
Rajagopal, Arvind, 197
recognition, Indonesian gay zines and, 86, 89–90, 92–93
recovery, nostalgia and mediated fantasy of, 215–17 “Red Dev,” 131
red light districts. See Born into Brothels reductionism, reader awareness of, 59
refugees, 207, 228
Reich, Wilhelm, 162
relationality and affect, 22
representation, violence of, 59 reproductive control, 279, 292n7
rescue narratives, 269, 273–74, 283, 288.
See also Born into Brothels return. See diasporic return, queer Reyes, Adelaida, 207
rhetorical vulnerability, 209
Robins, Kevin, 4–5
Robinson, Lillian S., 17
Rodgers, Susan, 81
Rodriguez, Robyn, 112, 114, 136n2
Rofel, Lisa, 170n20, 253
See also love
routes metaphor, 5
Roy, Kumkum, 199n7
Rubin, Gayle, 278–79
Said, Edward, 298, 304, 305, 310, 319 same-sex relationships. See homosexuality and same-sex erotics; Indonesian gay and lesbi zines; Twin Bracelets, The Sanchez, Kalidad, 131–32, 133
San Francisco International Gay and Lesbian Film Festival, 233, 250
Sang, Tze-Ian D., 265n19, 265n26
Sanlaap, 270, 287
scale jumping, 9
Scheid, Volker, 74n15
Schein, Louisa: on browsing the commodity space, 178; on desire to desire, 181; on erotics, 36–37; on itinerant ethnography, 23; on media entrepreneurship, 7; scale jumping and, 9; on subjectivity and media consumption, 261–62
Schiller, Herbert, 6 school-age bonds, same-sex, 247–49, 264n14
Scott, A. O., 267
second person in popular nonfiction, 74n12 seduction: Baudrillard on, 218; exploitation and symbology of, 210; Hmong diasporic video and seductive emigration, 217–18; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 307 self-health media. See Chinese popular self-health (ziwo baojian) media seminal essence (jing), 151–52, 169n19 sensory conditions and somatic modes of attention, 156–57 sensory imagery, 157, 221
sensuality, 178–79, 307–8
separation, and Indonesian gay zines, 90–93, 102–5 sex-education literature, Chinese, 169n10 sexology, Chinese. See Whispering Tonight (radio) and Chinese sexology sex tourism, correspondence marriage and distancing from, 112–13, 121–22 sexual “danger” and gender, 13
sex workers and prostitution: agency and, 16, 294n24; Durbar Mahila Samanwaya Committee, 269, 270, 279, 280, 281, 285–88, 286, 291, 294n32, 296n50; economic arrangements in Kolkata, 268–69, 281, 295n37; imperialist condemnation over, 295n38; Indian talk-show episode on erotic pleasure and, 190; National Sex Workers’ Conference (India), 280; parental fitness narratives, 277–78; stigma, managing, 287–88. See also Born into Brothels
Shah, Svati P., 285
Shaviro, Steven, 220–21
Shetty, Shilpa, 1
Shimizu, Celine Parreñas, 16
Shuang zhuo (film). See Twin Bracelets, The Shuang zhuo (Lu), 240–41
“sick love” in Indonesia, 83, 101
Siegel, James T., 82, 83
Silk (Baricco), 301–2, 311–12, 317
Silvio, Teri, 265n25
Simpson, O.J., 60
simulacra, 168n4
Sinclair, John, 8
Singh, Putul, 291
“sister-husband and sister-wife” (jiemei fuqi), 234, 243–44, 251–52 skin color and diasporic transformation, 41
Slumdog Millionaire (film), 276
smiling as bodily discipline in China, 147 social production: China, desiring production, recoding, and, 153–56, 158–59, 161–62; desiring production and, 141–42 solidarity, 207–8
somatic modes of attention, 156–57
Sonagachi Project, 294n32
Sonagachi red light district, Kolkata. See Born into Brothels Songs Chosen by Listeners (Chinese radio), 148 spatiality. See border crossing; geographies and spatiality speaking softly, in Chinese radio, 146–48
Spielberg, Steven, 297, 315
Spivak, Gayatri, 301n15
Sreberny, Annabelle, 7
Stewart, Susan, 215
Stoler, Ann, 11–12, 18
striptease, 320n9
subjectivities: Chinese popular health media and self-cultivation, 67–68, 72; development narrative of sexual identity, 250–51; ethnotextuality and, 26; fantasy and, 19–20; gendered consuming subject in India, 181–82, 184; Hmong diasporic video and, 205, 226–27, 228–29; Indian talk shows and, 201n20; Indonesian gay zines and, 79, 80; media consumption as inseparable from, 261–62; Memoirs of a Geisha and play with exotic-self border, 315; methodological issues, 72n1; Miguel/Michelle and, 47; multiplicity of forms across cultural contexts, 261; new media and, 8; pop psychology and, 61–62; transsexuality as non-solution, 47
Sun, Wanning, 8
Sun Ge, 14
Sunu Jing (The classic of plain girl), 144
Sun Yan, 146, 148–49, 149, 151, 157
Swara Srikandi. See Indonesian gay and lesbi zines Taiwan: gay and lesbian media and consumer culture, expansion of, 248; global gay and lesbian politics and, 250–51, 261; tongzhi community in, 247–49, 254, 264n15, 264n17; Western sexual discourses, impact of, 256–57. See also Twin Bracelets, The talk shows, Indian, 189–90
Tamil akam poetry, 176, 199n8
Tasyo, Pilosopo, 131
television: Chinese health education and, 74n18, 140; Indian, 186–95, 199n1, 201n21 Television Clinic, The (China), 159
textuality, 24–27
Thadani, Giti, 200n10
Thailand, 204, 210. See also Hmong diasporic video Thao, Su, 208–9, 225–26
Thiesmeyer, Lynn, 12
Tierra, Pierre, 130
Time, 293n11
tongxing ai (“same-sex love”), 265n19
tongxinglian or dongsingluan (“same-sex love”), 251, 265n19 tongzhi (gay, lesbian, or queer identity), 247–49, 251, 254, 264n15, 264n17 tourism, diasporic, and boundary crossing, 5–6 Townley, Randy, 131 tradition: commodity desire in India and, 183–84, 187–88; diasporic return and modernity vs., 40; transnational television in India and, 195–96

Trafficking Victims Protection Act (TVPA), U.S., 272

translation and nontranslation, 283

transsexuals: multiple identities, need for, 46; not fixed, ready-made solution, 47; Thailand, surgery in, 51n8; “trannie” as term, 51n5. See also Miguel/Michelle (film) and Filipino bakla

transvestites, 83

travel, imaginative, 178, 300

Treat, John, 301–2, 308–9, 310–11, 313, 314, 317 truth: documentary and, 290; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 303, 316–17; multiple consciousness and, 60; stripper identities and, 320n6; truism vs., in popular culture, 56; The Twin Bracelets and, 260. See also authenticity; knowledge and epistemology

Tu, Thuy Linh Nguyen, 17

Turan, Kenneth, 290

United Nations Optional Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, 272

United States: area studies in, 13–14; fears, moral and economic, 269, 271–73, 288–89; Trafficking Victims Protection Act, 272; The Twin Bracelets, reception of, 233, 234, 250; zines in, 77 upward mobility. See class

upopian polygamy, 264n13

video, Hmong. See Hmong diasporic video virginity: correspondence marriage and, 119; Dr. Tom and, 217, 226–27; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 304, 308

virtual body, actualization of, 141, 165, 168n5

virtuality, 141, 146

visibility: abnormality and, 72; Chinese popular health media and, 54, 67–68, 72; digital image-making and hypervisibility, 17; Gopinath on, 11; heteropatriarchal discourses and, 200n10; Indonesian lesbi zines and absence of photographs, 86, 87; Taiwan, global gay and lesbian politics and, 250–51, 261

cuggling, 315–16, 320n11

voice, in Memoirs of a Geisha, 304

Voloshinov, V. N., 25

voyeurism: Born into Brothels and, 269; documentary imperative and, 27; Indian music videos and, 191, 274; Memoirs of a Geisha and, 314, 317; sex work and, 290. See also gaze

Vukovich, Daniel, 14–15, 301n15

vulnerability, rhetorical, 209

Wang Benhu, 263n11

Wang Hui, 14

Wang Jin, 264n11

Watts, Nathan, 111, 130–31, 132

wayward erotics, 37, 42, 49–50

“West,” the, and Euroamerica: boundary marking and, 5; Indonesian gay zines on, 94–95; masturbation and, 152–53; transnational television in India and fears of, 186–87, 195–96, 197–98, 200n16

Weston, Kath, 27

Whispering Tonight (radio) and Chinese sexology: embodying the language in, 148–51; Chinese and Western sexuali-
Whispering Tonight (radio) and Chinese sexology (cont.)

ties and Dr. Ma, 143–46; circuit flows and, 139–40; class differentiations and, 163–64; desiring production, social production, and recoding, 153–56, 158–59, 161–62; historicity of desire and case of Mr. Wang, 159–65; limits of desiring production and nonphallocentric eroticism, 164–65; listening as refashioning desire, 156–59; masturbation, seminal essence, and morality vs. normality, 151–53, 161–62; media virtuality and clinical actuality, 140–43; pleasure vs. desire and, 166–67; as semiritualistic, 156–57, 170n24; speaking softly and commercialization of the body, 146–48; types of questions, 143

“white woman’s burden,” 282–83

Williams, Linda, 21
Williams, Raymond, 6
Wilson, Ara, 16, 112, 209
Wittgenstein, Ludwig, 169n14

women. See gender
Wong, Kristina, 17, 113
Xiong, Lee, 225

Yan, Yunxiang, 169n11

yangsheng (cultivation of life), 64, 169n16
Yang Yueqing, 264n11

Yan Hairong, 14–15, 30n15

Yuav Tos Txog Hnub Twg (Dr. Tom series). See under Hmong diasporic video

Yue, Audrey, 8

Yufang Miju (Secrets of the jade chamber), 144

zhuomo, 149, 157

zideqile, 167

zines, 77. See also Indonesian gay and lesbi zines

Zishu (Intimates, film), 258–59

ziwo baojian. See Chinese popular self-health (ziwo baojian) media

Žižek, Slavoj, 19, 181