Dying in Full Detail

Malkowski, Jennifer

Published by Duke University Press

Malkowski, Jennifer.
Dying in Full Detail: Mortality and Digital Documentary.

For additional information about this book https://muse.jhu.edu/book/64056

For content related to this chapter https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=2278259
INDEX

Page numbers followed by f indicate material in figures or photographs.

Aaron, Michele, 124, 135
About to Die (Zelizer), 210n4
"about to die" images, 128, 175, 210n4
"accidental gaze," 19, 173
Accused/Blowtorch/Padlock (Williams), 37
"active dying," 104
activist use of documentary death, 202; in 1970s and 1980s, 72, 95; in Agha-Soltan and Oscar Grant videos, 165, 170–75, 177, 180–81, 194–95, 198; during AIDS crisis, 94–95; Alton Sterling video, 192–93; in Arab Spring, 10, 174, 225n12; by Black Lives Matter, 175, 196, 225n12; contextualization issues in, 190, 193–95, 197; for Golden Gate Bridge suicide barrier, 148–49; "I am ___" "We are all ___" template, 185–89; "Kony 2012," 183; lending respectability, 148; nationally and internationally, 10; production, distribution, exhibition decisions in, 157–59; requiring graphically visible death, 10; Saigon Execution, 157. See also Agha-Soltan (Neda) death video; Grant (Oscar) videos; YouTube actuality footage: in Berlin (Ruttmann), 110; distortions of during playback, 193–94; early attempts and faking of, 48–51 (50f), 181; in early cinema, 43; electrocution films, 45–46, 61, 63, 212n47; execution films, 43–46, 63, 71, 212–13n49, 213n51; instant replay in, 56, 214n78; lack of in Cambodia, 9–10; Saddam execution, 63; from unpublished archives, 63, 215–16n98; value of, 10. See also death porn; lynching photographs; YouTube; Zapruder film Adams, Eddie, 58–62 (59f), 157, 215n96
Advance of Kansas Volunteers at Caloocan (Edison), 47–48 aesthetics on YouTube, 177–83
African Americans, 175; Annie (in Imitation of Life), 67–70 (69f), 73–74, 82, 85, 184; death rates for, 80, 218n36; portrayals of "good" deaths for, 82; Rodney King, 176, 181, 193–96. See also Grant (Oscar) videos; lynching photographs afterlife, death as passage to, 11, 30, 34, 64 Agamben, Giorgio, 104, 220n81 age of beautiful death, 30–31, 33, 35, 74
Agha-Soltan (Neda) death video, 167–82 (168f, 169f); audio track to, 183; compared to dying male protestors, 228n43; cultural cues for Iranian viewers in, 179–80; effects of, 175; and "I am Neda" declarations, 188–89; illusion of eye contact in, 167, 168f, 184, 191; as "immediately powerful performance," 181; impossibility of censoring, 172–73; intentionality of, 173; international viewership of, 175, 176; Iranian access to, 167–70; and Islamic martyrdom, 190–91; "moment of death" in, 184; multiple camera angles, 167, 178; Neda as global icon, 176–77, 185;
Agha-Soltan (Neda) death video (continued)
realism of blood flow in, 178–79; resembling “camera subjectivity” horror, 178; as result of ubiquitous gaze, 174–75
Ahmadinejad, Mahmoud, 167
Alexander, Elizabeth, 193
Al-Kaseasbeh, Muath, 163
Als, Hilton, 38
Alsultany, Evelyn Azeeza, 179
American Association of Suicidology, 123
American Civil War: corpse photography from, 29, 31–35; and fear of death without spiritual preparation, 61; Gardner’s Photographic Sketchbook of the Civil War, 33–35, 49, 211n19; massive casualties from, 11;
propagandistic descriptions of, 33
American Foundation for Suicide Prevention, 123
American Journal of Insanity, 122, 151
American Technological Sublime (Nye), 133
Amnesty International “Neda Speaks” campaign, 188
Andre Show, The (Peterson), 88–89, 97, 103
anesthetization, 42, 132, 136, 193, 212n47 animal deaths in films, 45–46, 61, 213n56
Annie (in Imitation of Life), 67–70 (69f), 73–74, 82, 85, 184
“anterior future,” 29
Apel, Dora, 37
Arab Spring, 10, 172–74, 225n12
Ariès, Philippe: on Dying film, 82; on dying ritual, 220n70; on loss of deathbed attendance, 96; on nineteenth-century death culture,
11, 30, 208n24; on twentieth-century death culture, 13, 74
Ars moriendi (The Art of Dying), 73, 75, 79, 83;
See also nova ars moriendi assisted suicide, 125–126 “attention economy,” 22, 167, 177, 180–81, 221n10
authenticity: of individual death, 78, 84, 126; in portrayals of death, 45, 49–51, 57; of “real” death, 181; special effects to convey, 178 authenticity in portrayals of death, 51 autobiographical documentary, 73, 87, 95–96, 105, 220n69. See also Silverlake Life automated gaze, 20, 139–40 “bad death,” 74, 82, 85
“badly kept secret,” death as, 217n24
Ball, Alan, 23–24
“bare life,” 104
Barthes, Roland, 29–31, 43, 184
Batchen, Geoffrey, 96–97
Battle of the Somme, 213–141n64
Bazin, André: on “change mummified,“ 43, 102; on death as unique moment, 23, 170–71; on diver in reverse, 152–53; on documentary death as obscene, 1–3, 6, 14, 20, 151; on dying twice, 1; on “eternal dead-again” of cinema, 3, 55, 170–71, 194; on “metaphysical obscenity,” 1, 6, 14; on nonrepresentability of death, 202; on photographs embalming time, 29, 43
Beato, Felice, 211n18
beautiful death, age of, 30–31, 33, 35, 74
Becker, Ernest, 78
beheadings, online coverage of, 64, 162–63, 209n44
Benning, Sadie, 96
Berg, Nick, 64, 162, 209n44
Bergen-Belsen concentration camp, 40
Berlin: Symphony of a Great City (Ruttmann), 109–10, 111f
Bill (in Dying), 81, 83, 89
bin Laden, Osama, 63–64
Biograph (Mutoscope/Biograph), 44, 47
Black Lives Matter, 175, 196, 225n12
Black Star (Joslin), 96, 102
Blair Witch Project, The (Myrick & Sánchez), 178
blink of camera’s eye, 104
Blue (Jarman), 14 bodies falling through space, 144–46. See also Bridge, The; Falling Man, The body, focusing on, 90–102 (92f, 100f, 101f) “body genres,” 27, 107
Boer wars, 47
Bouazizi, Mohamed, 10
Brady, Mathew, 32
brain death, 76, 217n20, 22, 220n81
Brennan, William, 160, 216n101
Bridge, The (Steel), 130; anesthetization through repetition in, 136–37; compared to Deserter, 220n11; compared to Faces of Death, 149; compared to Vertigo, 144; in context of 9/11 jumps, 130–31; differentiating from snuff, 112; ethics and aesthetics of, 120–21; expectant gaze in, 116–17; Gene Sprague’s suicide, 120, 141–44 (142f, 143f), 146; illusion of instant, painless death, 135–36; interviewing friends and family in, 114; not employing automated gaze, 140; no temporal manipulation in, 152–53; opening sequence, 118; placement of cameras for, 114; and “postcard” shot with jumper, 137, 138f; postproduction enhancement in, 137–40, 152, 177; relative invisibility of jumpers in, 132–35 (134f); reviews of, 112; as sublime spectacle, 113, 126–27, 135–36, 140, 144, 150; suicide prevention as stated goal of, 113; suicides inspired by, 151; video used for long-duration shooting, 88; viewer reactions to, 151; YouTube remix with Seether video, 152–53. See also Sprague, Gene

Brooks, Ernest, 32
Brothers, Caroline, 51
Brown, Michael, 196
Brown, Wendy, 77–78
Bruegel, Pieter, 132–33, 134f, 137
“brutal revolution” in attitudes, 11, 75
Bryant, Reverend (in Dying), 81–86, 89
Buchenwald concentration camp, 40
Burke, Edmund, 126
Burris, John, 196
Butler, Judith, 183–84, 188 bystander footage, 5, 173, 182, 193–96. See also Agha-Soltan (Neda) death video; Grant (Oscar) videos; King, Rodney

Camera Lucida (Barthes), 29, 184 camera(s): angles in Agha-Soltan video, 167, 178; blink of camera’s eye, 104; in deathbed documentaries, 72–73, 96; digital handheld, 165; in direct cinema style, 84, 99, 116, 178; “gazes” of in viewing actual death, 19–20; home movie cameras, 4; placement of for The Bridge, 114; shaky camerawork, 99, 116, 178; use of for deathbed documentaries, 72–73, 82–84, 96; viewer criticism of bystander camerawork, 182. See also mobile phone cameras; surveillance cameras “camera subjectivity” horror films, 178
Camus, Albert, 109, 120

Capa, Robert, 48–51 (50f), 181 captions/descriptions, propagandistic, 33–34 Capture of Trenches at Candaba (Edison), 47–48 capturing death to control it, 203
Carazo, Margarita, 165, 166f
Caroline (in The Bridge), 146
Cartier-Bresson, Henri, 28, 48
cellphones. See mobile phone cameras censorship, 26; lack of in citizen videos, 175; lack of on “death porn” websites, 162; in light of lynching postcards, 39; Lincoln administration attitude on, 32–33; minimal in Vietnam War, 33, 57–58, 215n83; self-censoring, 53, 58, 60, 63, 175, 191; through live feed delay in television, 56–57; during World Wars I and II, 33, 46; by YouTube, 161; of Zapruder headshot frame, 53
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 123
Cerna, Ricardo, 125
“change mummified,” 43
Charge of the Rough Riders at San Juan Hill (Remington), 48
Cherchi Usai, Paolo, 204
Cheyenne (in Time of Death), 87 children’s corpses, photographs of, 29–31, 41 China, 10
cholera, swiftness of death from, 208n23
Choosing to Die (Russell), 125
Chubbuck, Christine, 56
Churchill, Larry, 76, 78, 89 cinematic specificity, 3 cinema vérité, 84, 116 circle: added to deny viewer, 191; added to focus attention, 181, 191
Citizen journalism, 172–75
Citron, Michelle, 96
City of Angels (Brad Silberling), 145
Civil War. See American Civil War classical versus contemporary film theory, 8 Cliffhanger (Harlin), 145 closed-circuit television (cctv) surveillance, 139–40 Cloverfield (Reeves), 178
coffin bells, 217n20
Combs, Scott, 43–46, 71, 84
community support for the dying, 95 Comprehensive Textbook of Suicidology, 123–24 concentration camps photography, 14, 39–42, 64 condolence letters describing death, 34 contagion, suicide, 122–24, 144, 150–51, 222n24 context/contextualization: and Agha-Soltan death, 189–91; and The Falling Man, 128; global, 188; and Grant video, 192–97; and HIV-AIDS, 95; in judging graphic material, 160–61; lack of on TheYNC, 163–64; national and historical, 8–13, 34; and Rodney King video, 193–94; through missing or superfluous detail, 193; of treatment of Black Americans, 192–93, 196; and YouTube, 22, 159–61, 180, 189–97, 225n12 controlling death through capture, 203 control through capturing death, 203
Coogler, Ryan, 185
Cook, David, 191, 199 corpse photography: becoming cliché, 157; in Civil War battlefields, 31–35; in concentration camps, 39–42; of Darfur genocide, 39–42; of lynchings, 35–39; and Michael Brown video, 196; and postmortem mourning, 29–31; rearranging, posing the dead for, 32–33; in siege of Lucknow, 211n18; sympathy and alienation in viewing, 157; as "too late," 28–29 corpses, reality and fiction: closing of eyes, 68, 98, 102; transition from lived body to, 71. See also moment of death craftwork to aid mourning, 96–97
Cross, Tommy Jr., 165, 166f
Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon (Lee), 145–46
Crowe, Cameron, 145
Cruzan, Nancy, 76
csi (TV show), 181–82
cultural banishment of death, 2 curiosity about death, 3; aided by digital technology, 22; death porn responding to, 15, 164, 202; evolving into apprehension, 18; feeding Six Feet Under, 24; natural death, 70; not inherently morbid, 203; nurtured by fiction film, 2; as only limit, 6; proper response to, 114; pushing early cinema, 43 customized death experience, 77 cystic fibrosis (cf), 90–91
Czolgosz, Leon, 45, 63, 71
Dachau concentration camp, 40
daguerreotype, 30
Darfur, Sudan, 155–56
Davis, Kate, 88
Davis, Peter, 113
Dean, Jodi, 159, 171, 189
Death 24x a Second (Mulvey), 43, 87
Death: A Love Story (LeBrun), 88, 97 deathbed documentaries, 71–72; autobiographical, 88–89; camera use in, 72–73, 82–84, 96; de-emphasizing body and moment of death, 81–82, 86; demographics of, 79–80; function of, 78–79; lack of "ugly films," 88; microbudget projects, 88; providing sense of purpose, 84; as rebellion against medical "dictatorship," 75; showing death as prolonged process, 72; value of for viewers, 84–85; video and dv for, 86. See also documentary death footage; Dying (Roemer); Sick: The Life and Death of Bob Flanagan, Supermasochist (Dick); Silverlake Life (Joslin and Friedman) deathbed scene: attendance at as privilege, 11–12; fiction of standard conventions, 68, 216n6; in Imitation of Life (Sirk), 67–70 (69f), 73–74, 82, 85, 184; video appearance at, 72–73, 96 death blow "embalming" time, 34–35 death culture: nineteenth-century, 11, 30, 96–97, 208n24; twentieth-century, 13, 74, 96 death-denial culture, 2, 11, 68, 76, 83
“Death Every Afternoon” (Bazin), 170
“death instincts,” 222n24
“Death Jump” (Reichelt), 215–16n98
“death of one’s own,” 2. See also individualized, unique dying Death on Request (Nederhorst), 125 death porn, 14–15; The Bridge and, 147–48; crossover with hard-core porn, 163; distinguishing from "redeeming social importance," 64; education versus entertainment criterion for, 112; Faces of Death, 15; lack of context in, 164; lynching photographs as, 35; online marketing of, 162–63; popularity and volume of, 164; and YouTube policies, 160, 162, 165 “decisive moment,” 28, 48. See also “on time” recording; “too late”
INDEX • 245

Deserter (Pudovkin), 220n1
Design for Dying (Leary), 78
Devil Came on Horseback, The (Sundberg & Stern), 155–56, 158, 197
diary format, 89, 94
Dick, Kirby, 88–90
digital video (dv) documentary, 110; allowing death “on demand,” 151; for deathbed documentary, 86, 87–90; and digital annotation, 181, 191; and digital handheld cameras, 165; increased storage, lower price, 4, 72, 79, 110–12; loss of digital files, 204; online viewing of, 170–72, 177; as “particular case of animation,” 7; replacing firsthand exposure to dying, 13. See also Agha-Soltan (Neda) death video;

Dying

direct cinema style: avoiding “acting for the camera,” 84; creating emotional distance, 105; in Dying, 82; and objectivity, 96; parody and imitation of, 218–19n39; shaky camerawork in, 99, 116, 178; technology of, 82, 178
disavowal of death, 31
distribution and exhibition by Internet, 4, 158, 162. See also Facebook; TheYNC; Twitter; YouTube
diver in reverse, 152–53
Doane, Mary Ann, 44, 46, 204
documentary death footage: animal deaths, 45–46, 61, 213n56; Bazin’s rejection of, 2–3, 20; censorship of, 39; cultural work of, 202–3; in the digital age, 4–6, 62–63, 204–5, 209n44; and Drew’s Falling Man, 128–30 (129f); ethics and value of, 2–3, 14–16, 64, 113–14, 148, 155, 198; Farocki’s response to, 65; and “gazes” taxonomy, 20; marketing of, 162; of Nazi concentration camps, 39–42; and political causes, 10; public appetite for, 164, 209n44; rarity of close-ups in, 184; social, racial factors in, 39; “too late” and “on time,” 28, 33–34; viewing versus experiencing, 64–65; in Waltz with Bashir, 9. See also activist use of documentary death; Bridge, The (Steel); deathbed documentaries; death porn; moment of death; Saigon Execution; war deaths, capture of; Zapruder film
Dredd (Travis), 145
Drew, Richard, 127–30 (129f)

Dyk, Kirby, 88–90
digital video (dv) documentary, 110; allowing death “on demand,” 151; for deathbed documentary, 86, 87–90; and digital annotation, 181, 191; and digital handheld cameras, 165; increased storage, lower price, 4, 72, 79, 110–12; loss of digital files, 204; online viewing of, 170–72, 177; as “particular case of animation,” 7; replacing firsthand exposure to dying, 13. See also Agha-Soltan (Neda) death video;

Dying

direct cinema style: avoiding “acting for the camera,” 84; creating emotional distance, 105; in Dying, 82; and objectivity, 96; parody and imitation of, 218–19n39; shaky camerawork in, 99, 116, 178; technology of, 82, 178
disavowal of death, 31
distribution and exhibition by Internet, 4, 158, 162. See also Facebook; TheYNC; Twitter; YouTube
diver in reverse, 152–53
Doane, Mary Ann, 44, 46, 204
documentary death footage: animal deaths, 45–46, 61, 213n56; Bazin’s rejection of, 2–3, 20; censorship of, 39; cultural work of, 202–3; in the digital age, 4–6, 62–63, 204–5, 209n44; and Drew’s Falling Man, 128–30 (129f); ethics and value of, 2–3, 14–16, 64, 113–14, 148, 155, 198; Farocki’s response to, 65; and “gazes” taxonomy, 20; marketing of, 162; of Nazi concentration camps, 39–42; and political causes, 10; public appetite for, 164, 209n44; rarity of close-ups in, 184; social, racial factors in, 39; “too late” and “on time,” 28, 33–34; viewing versus experiencing, 64–65; in Waltz with Bashir, 9. See also activist use of documentary death; Bridge, The (Steel); deathbed documentaries; death porn; moment of death; Saigon Execution; war deaths, capture of; Zapruder film
Dredd (Travis), 145
Drew, Richard, 127–30 (129f)
Field Where General Reynolds Fell (O’Sullivan), 33–35
Filipinos Retreat from Trenches (Edison), 47–48 “Film Bodies” (Williams), 27, 210n2 film versus video, 87–90, 97–98, 114, 204 first-person documentaries, 5
Fitzpatrick, Andrea, 139
Flags of Our Fathers (Eastwood), 157, 178
Flanagan, Bob, 90–91, 103. See also Sick: The Life and Death of Bob Flanagan, Supermasochist (Dick)
Flanagan, Vester Lee, 162, 226n15
Fleischer, Stefan, 86, 88
“flight,” deadly fall as, 146, 150
Foley, James, 162–63
Folman, Ari, 9
For Neda (Thomas), 229n67
Freud, Sigmund, 68, 222n24
Friday Night Lights (TV show), 185
Friedman, Peter, 68, 93, 97. See also Silverlake Life
Friedrich, Su, 96
Frost, David, 201, 203, 205
Fruitvale Station (Coogler), 185, 187f, 195
Fuller, Margaret, 136
Gamboa, Kyle, 151
Gardner’s Photographic Sketchbook of the Civil War, 32–35, 46, 49, 211n19
Garner, Eric, 17, 196
Garrison, Jim, 55
gatekeepers, bypassing, 6 “gazes” taxonomy: proposed additions to, 20, 116, 139, 174; by Sobchack, 19–20. See also Sobchack, Vivian gender, race in deathbed documentaries, 80 genocide, 39–42
Giddens, Anthony, 79
Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von, 123, 130, 135, 141
Golden Gate Bridge, 118, 124, 138f; advocates for suicide barrier, 148–49; choice of for jumpers, 146; Eric Steel on suicide barrier, 149; follow-up on thwarted suicides, 224n63; Joy of Life (Olson), 148–49; magnitude of compared to jumpers, 131–33; Nye on, 133; Suicide Box (Jeremijenko), 139, 148. See also Bridge, The (Steel)
Goldsby, Jacqueline, 37–38, 212n33
Google Glass, 5
Gorer, Geoffrey, 11–12, 13, 14–15, 35
Grant (Oscar) videos, 165, 166f; added circle to focus attention, 181, 191; allowed to remain on YouTube, 159; audio track, 182–83; bystander’s ill-timed pan, 182; compared to Rodney King video, 194–96; context of, 160, 165, 192–93, 196–97; effect of, 175–76, 184–85, 186f, 188, 198; and “grievability,” 184–85, 193, 199; “guilty until proven innocent,” 188; impossibility of censoring, 172; intentional-ity in recordings, 173, 174–75; lacking clear shot of face, 181, 185; and Mehserle’s conviction, 198; mother’s reaction to, 194; racist YouTube comments on, 197; resembling courtroom evidence shots, 181; as result of ubiquitous gaze, 174–75; six video sources, 165; viewer criticism of camerawork, 182; viewership of, 175, 177, 185. See also Fruitvale Station (Coogler)
Great Ecstasy of the Sculptor Steiner, The (Herzog), 144–45
Green Movement (Iran), 167, 171–74, 177, 180, 190, 198
Gregory, Sam, 180–81, 190
“grewsome war,” pictures of, 47, 57, 156
Grey Gardens (Maysles & Maysles), 218n39
“grievability,” 184–85, 193, 199
Grizzly Man (Herzog), 14
Groden, Richard, 214n76
Gröss, Frances B. (character), 15 guidelines: for posting on YouTube, 160–62, 225n12; for suicide prevention, 113, 123–24, 150; for voluntary wartime censorship, 58
Gunning, Tom, 8
Habel, Annette, 127
Halperin, Naomi, 128
Harlin, Renny, 145

good death: Ars moriendi guidelines for, 73, 75, 79, 83; cultural variations in, 82; Eda (in Dying at Grace), 105, 106f; and Jack Kavorkian, 125; nineteenth-century view of, 11–12; and nova ars moriendi, 77–79, 83–85, 90; of Sally and Bryant (in Dying), 84; “the one that achieves,” 219n49; twentieth-century view of, 12, 73; views of in 1970s, 96. See also individualized, unique dying
INDEX • 247

Harriet (in Dying), 81, 83, 85, 218n38
Harrison, Mark, 192
Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince (Yates), 145
Hawkins, A. H., 85
headshots: attraction of, 52; in Kennedy assassination, 52–55 (54f); in Saigon Execution (Adams), 58–60 (59f), 62
“healthy dying,” 70, 81
Hearts and Minds (Davis), 113 heart transplants and moment of death, 27, 75–76, 217n20 heaven, reunion in, 11–12
hejab in Agha-Soltan video, 179–80
Hejazi, Arash, 167, 171
“helpless gaze,” 19, 115–16
hemlock, death by, 222n32
Herzog, Werner, 14, 144–45
Hines, Kevin, 135, 141
Hitchcock, Alfred, 144
HIV/AIDS: The Andre Show (Peterson), 88; in deathbed documentary, 73, 86; first-person videotaping of, 89, 94; and gay male attitudes toward death, 9, 95; and return of the body in film, 90; showing physical symptoms of, 94–95; society disassociation from, 103, 183. See also Silverlake Life
Holden, Stephen, 112
Holliday, George, 193–94
Holocaust, 14, 39–42, 64
“Home Burial” (Frost), 201, 203, 205 home movie cameras, 4 “homo sacer,” 220n81
Hood, Miggi, 84
Hooper, Tom, 145
hospice and palliative care, 76–77, 83, 85, 89, 94, 219n62 hospitals: aesthetic sterility of, 82, 90; Bob’s death in Sick, 91, 92f; displacement of death to, 12, 75, 76; focus of on body, 96, 102; keeping death out of sight, 180; and machine registrants of death, 71; and neoliberalism, 79; and nostalgia for home deaths, 70; organ donation and moment of death, 27, 75–76, 217n20; prolongation of death, 13, 81, 83, 210n11; and “standard issue” death, 78; tubes as image of, 13, 74, 76, 83
How to Die in Oregon (Richardson), 125
“humane gaze”/“humane stare,” 19, 174
Hunterly-Brinkley Report, The, 60–61
Hussein (Shiite martyr), 190
“I am ____” declarations, 185, 188–89, 229n60
Ibrahim, Youssef, 173
Illustrated Police News (IPN), 121–22 images, ability of to wound, 65
“I Met Him on a Sunday,” 102
Imitation of Life (Sirk): as anachronism, 70, 217n14; Annie’s moment of death, 67–70 (69f), 73–74, 82, 85, 184; Lora in, 67–68, 71, 74, 184 immortality: in film, 115, 153, 203; and immateriality, 203–5 indexicality, loss of, 7–8 individualized, unique dying, 93, 96; failure of in Dying, 105; initial waning of “death of one’s own,” 2; neoliberalism and individual death, 73, 77–79, 85, 103; and rejection of hospital death, 74; and “revival of death,” 76, 90, 217–18n25; in Sick, Silverlake Life, 104
Inextinguishable Fire, The (Farocki), 65 infant corpse photographs, 29–31 informed consent, 15, 19, 113, 115, 146, 202 “Inscribing Ethical Space” (Sobchack), 19–20, 71, 105, 115, 174, 210n53. See also Sobchack, Vivian instantaneous death, portrayals of, 26–27. See also “moment of death” interventional gaze,” 19, 116 interviews: with dying subjects, 82–83, 86, 105; use of in The Bridge, 114–16, 118, 137, 141, 146, 150 invisible made visible, 6
Islamic martyrdom, 190–91
Jackson, C. D., 53
Jackson, Peter, 145
JAMA (Journal of the American Medical Association), 75–76
Jarman, Derek, 14
Jenkins, Henry, 158
Jeremijenko, Natalie, 139
JFK (Stone), 55
Johnson, Lyndon B., 57, 63
Johnson, Wanda, 194
Jones, Daniel V., 56, 125
Jordan, Michael B., 185, 187f
Joslin, Tom:
Black Star, 96; death of not a memento mori, 103; displaying AIDS lesions, 100f, 101f, 103; partner’s attempts to close eye, 68, 98, 102; shooting own footage, 97, 103; virtual witnesses to death of, 96.
See also HIV/AIDS; Silverlake Life journalistic death photos, 35
Joy of Life, The (Olson), 148–49
Juhasz, Alexandra, 159, 171, 180, 182, 199
‘Jumpers’ (New Yorker), 135
Junod, Tom, 128, 223n39
‘justified shootings’/‘justifiable homicides’ and race, 230n79
Kant, Immanuel, 126, 131–32
Kastenbaum, Robert, 10–11, 70, 77, 222n32
Kearl, Michael, 87–88
Kemmler, William, 45, 213n51
Kennedy, Jacqueline, 52–53, 55
Kennedy, John F., 57. See also Zapruder film of JFK assassination
Kerekes, David, 15, 88
Kevorkian, Jack, 125
Khomeini (Ayatollah), 190
Killing for Culture (Kerekes & Slater), 15, 88
King, Rodney, 176, 181, 193–96
King, Shaun, 192–93
King Kong (Jackson), 145
“Kony 2012,” 183
Kubany, Susan, 82
Kübler-Ross, Elisabeth, 73, 75–79, 83–84, 90, 96, 102
Landscape with the Fall of Icarus (Bruegel), 132–33, 134f, 137
Lanzmann, Claude, 14
Laplanche, Jean, 27
“last life-expression,” 34–35
“last sleep,” natural death as, 31, 33
Law and Order (tv show), 181–82
Learning from YouTube (Juhasz), 159
Leary, Timothy, 78
LeBrun, Michelle, 88–89
Lee, Ang, 145
Leget, Carlo, 78
Lém, Nguyễn Văn, 58, 61–62, 64, 157
Leslie’s Weekly, 47, 156
Les Misérables (Hooper), 145
Lightning over Water (Wenders & Ray), 89, 96, 103
Lincoln, Abraham, 32–33, 63
Liu, Daniel, 183
LiveLeak, 162, 164
Loan, Nguyễn Ngọc, 58, 60, 157, 215n96
Lock, Margaret, 76
Lopez, Ronnie, 198–99
Lora (in Imitation of Life), 67–68, 71, 74, 184
Lorber, Koch, 119f, 138f, 142f, 143f
Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring (Jackson), 145
Love Story (Hiller), 216n6
Loyalist Militiaman at the Moment of Death, Cerro Muriano, September 5, 1936 (Capa), 49.
See also Falling Soldier, The (Capa) lynching photographs: as celebratory and threatening, 35–36; as death porn, 64; Frank Embree, 212n33; genital coverings in, 37; mass-produced postcards of, 37, 39; more explicit than WWII scenes, 26; and other souvenirs, 211–12n29; postmortem temporality of, 38–39; and race, 211n23; shaping the lynching practice, 36–37; as trophies for hostile display, 37–38
Maddow, Rachel, 191
Madeleine (in Vertigo), 144
“make-believe” deaths, 13
Manovich, Lev, 7
Martin, Trayvon, 198
Martyrdom in Islam (Cook), 191 martyrs, 10, 190–91, 199, 229n67 Massi, Mark, 68, 70–71, 93–95, 97–99, 102, 146. See also Silverlake Life mathematical sublime, 131
“Maybe He Just Wanted to Fly One Time” (song), 146, 150
Maysles, Albert and David, 218n39
McCullin, Don, 94
McElwee, Ross, 87, 96
McKinley, William, 45
Meerloo, Joost A. M., 122–23, 222n24 melodrama soliciting tears from audience, 27 mementos of dead, 97
“memorial photographs,” 31
“metallic” rites of passage, 12 “metaphysical obscenity,” 3, 6, 14
microbudget projects, 88
Milford, Rebecca Leah (character), 23
Miller, Lee, 40
Minois, Georges, 122
Misérables, Les (Hooper), 145
Missing Picture, The (Panh), 9–10, 14 mobile phone cameras, 4, 158; citizen compulsion to document, 174–75; expectations of viewers, 182; outperforming security cameras, 165 modern medicine’s prolongation of death, 13, 83, 210n1 “moment of death”: and “about to die” moment, 210n4; as abrupt cessation of movement, 71; becoming small part of dying process, 13, 27, 75; captured in “last life-expression,” 34–35; as comforting fiction, 27–28; versus duration of modern death, 81, 94; fallacy of, 7, 26–27, 46; flatline on monitor defining, 71; in Dying at Grace, 105, 106f; headshot as, 52; from hours of discarded footage, 117; imagining one’s own, 24; legal “time of death,” 72, 76; in military reenactments and fakes, 48–51 (50f); and organ donation, 27, 75–76; power of, 63; and premature burial concerns, 27, 217n20; in Saigon Execution, 60–61; signifiers of in war footage, 44, 48–49; in Silverlake Life, 98–99; in Six Feet Under, 24–26 (25f); technological limitations in filming, 24–26; uncertainty of in electrocution, 45–46, 213n51. See also deathbed documentaries; stages of death mourning photographs, 29–31, 64, 70, 91 mourning rituals, 82, 96–97
“Moving Away from the Index” (Gunning), 8
Moving Picture World, 49
Mulvey, Laura, 43
mummifying change, 3
Mutoscope/Biograph, 44, 47
Myrick, Daniel, 178
Myth of Sisyphus, The (Camus), 120
Nabbous, Mohammed, 174 napalm, 65, 107
natural death, 5, 207n4; and African American male expectations, 80, 188, 218n36; fictions regarding, 64, 70; good and bad deaths, 84–85; and humane gaze, 19; lacking “cinematic signifier of death,” 44, 71; as “last sleep,” 33; medicalizing of, 12–13; as modern taboo, 13, 26, 72–73; and “moment” of death concept, 26, 70, 73; overlooked by early cinema, 44; paucity of documentary work on, 26, 70; and postmortem mourning photographs, 29–31, 64, 70, 91; as process rather than moment, 26–27; as routine, 105–7; statistic probability of, 70; versus suicide, 120; suppression of, 2; sympathizing without identifying with, 104; video as tool for recording, 73, 87–90; viewer response to, 107; YouTube favoring violence over, 5. See also deathbed documentaries “natural” death of celluloid, 204
Near Death (Wiseman), 88, 219n57
“necessary mistake” of film preservation, 204
Nederhorst, Maarten, 125 “negative pleasure” of suicide, 146–47 neoliberalism and individual death, 73, 77–79, 85, 103 new media theory, 7–8, 26, 158, 171
Niagara Falls, absorbing full wonder of, 136
NicheTube, 199
Night and Fog (Resnais), 14, 17, 113
9/11. See World Trade Center jumpers, pictures of nineteenth century: as age of beautiful death, 30–31, 33–35, 74; and craftwork mementos of dead, 96–97; death seen as forecasting soul’s fate, 11, 30, 34–35, 64; Gardner’s Photographic Sketchbook of the Civil War, 32–35, 46, 49, 211n9; “memorial photographs,” 31; “moment” of death pose, 48; portrayals of Black male suffering, 195; postmortem mourning photographs, 29–31, 64, 70, 91; premature burial fears, 27, 217n20; prevalence of epidemics, 11, 13, 95, 208n23; nineteenth century (continued) suicide contagion fears, 122. See also American Civil War; lynching photographs
Nixon, Richard, 57
Northshield, Robert, 60
Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge, The (Rilke), 2
nora ars moriendi, 77–79, 83–85, 90
“The Nuclear Sublime” (Ferguson), 126
Nye, David E, 132, 133, 136

Obama, Barack, 197
obscenity, legal definition of, 160, 216n101
Ohrdruf concentration camp, 40
Olson, Jenni, 148–49
Olympia (Riefenstahl), 144
On Death and Dying (Kübler-Ross), 75–77, 83
On Photography (Sontag), 136
On the Bridge (Perry), 88–89
“on time” recording: execution in Saigon, 58–60 (59f), 62; Kennedy assassination, 51–56 (54f), 63; use of reenactments for, 48; wartime staged “authenticity,” 47–51 (50f); organ donation and moment of death, 27, 75–76, 217n20
O’Sullivan, Timothy, 33
Oswald, Alice Blanche, 221n19
Oswald, Lee Harvey, 56
Oxford Textbook of Suicidology and Suicide Prevention, 123

Pach, Charles Jr., 58 pain of death: communicating, 97 pain of dying, 97
palliative care and hospice, 76–77, 83, 85, 89, 94
Panahi, Hamid, 167
Panh, Rithy, 9–10, 14
Panopticon, 174
Parenthood (tv show), 185
Parker, Alison, 57 past and “anterior future,” 29
Pathé, 63
Perry, Frank, 88–89
Peterson, Beverly, 88–89
Peterson, Scott, 229n65
Petronius, 120
Phelan, Peggy, 94
Philippine-American War, 47
Phillips, David, 123

photographs: creating martyrs, 10; embalming time, 29; The Falling Man (Drew), 127–31 (129f); The Falling Soldier (Capa), 48–51 (50f), 181; Gardner’s Photographic Sketchbook of the Civil War, 32–35, 46, 49, 211n19; journalistic, 35; posing for as “micro-version of death,” 30; posing of dead soldiers, 33; postmortem mourning, 29–31, 64, 70, 91; by Robert Capa, 48–51 (50f), 181; Saigon Execution (Adams), 58–62 (59f), 157, 199; scholarship on, 19; sitting for as “micro-version of death,” 30
physicality of death, 90
Prone, Anthony “Tony,” 165, 194
Plato, 222n32
police body cams, 198–99 political invisibility, 170
politicizing of death(s), 7, 62
Pontalis, J. B., 27
pornography: compared to documentary death, 2–3; emphasizing sensation over emotion, 14–15; as “on time” and “now,” 27; soliciting orgasms from audience, 27. See also death porn posing for photographs, 30 posthumous fame, 147, 150 postmortem mourning photographs, 29–31, 64, 70, 91 postproduction tools in The Bridge, 137–40, 152, 177 Precarious Life (Butler), 183–84 premature burial concerns, 27, 217n20 privacy of death, 6 privilege of self-protection, 17 “professional gaze,” 19–20, 173–74 propagandistic captions/descriptions, 33–34 psychology versus physiology, dying and, 85–86
Pudovkin, Vsevolod, 220n1
Pulver, Andrew, 112
Quinlan, Karen Ann, 76
race, gender in deathbed documentaries, 80, 82
Raiford, Leigh, 37
Ray, Nicholas, 89, 103
reenactments and fakes, 48–51 (50f), 64
Reeves, Matt, 178

250 • INDEX
referentiality, 8

Regarding the Pain of Others (Sontag), 136, 155

Reichelt, Franz, 215–16n98

Remington, Frederic, 48

Renov, Michael, 98

repeated viewings of death: The Bridge, 136–37, 151, 152; causing anesthetization, 42, 136; in film JFK, 55; in Oscar Grant’s trial, 194 representation, death remaining beyond, 7

Resnais, Alain, 14

“revival of death,” 76, 90, 217–18n25

Richardson, Peter, 125

Riefenstahl, Leni, 144

Riggs, Marlon, 96

right to look at actuality footage, 16

Rilke, Rainer Maria, 2, 201

Rivera, Geraldo, 55

Roach, Mary, 218n33

Roemer, Michael, 80–82, 84, 85–86, 88–89, 218n38

Romero, Jodon F., 56–57, 125

roopoosh-roosari hejab, 179–80

Rose, Nikolas, 78

Ruby, Jay, 13, 30–31, 56

rural versus urban death rates, 208n22

Russel, Andrew Hamilton, 32

Russell, Charlie, 125

Ruttmann, Walther, 109–12 (111f)

S21: The Khmer Rouge Killing Machine (Panh), 14

Sabety, Setareh, 179–80

Saddam Hussein, 63

Saeed, Khaled, 10

Saigon Execution (Adams), 58–62 (59f), 157, 199

Sally (in Dying), 80–81, 83–86, 89, 107

salvation, evidence of in final moments, 11, 30, 34–35, 64

Sánchez, Eduardo, 178

Sandoval, Pilar (character), 23

Santana, Feidin, 196

Sarah’s Sick Too, 103

Schiavo, Terri, 76, 220n81

Schiller, Friedrich, 127

Schneidman, Edwin, 221–22n21

scholarship on new media, 7–8, 26, 158, 171 scholarship on photography, 19

Schott, Michael, 192, 194

Schwartz, John Allen, 15, 113

Scott, Walter, 196

Secure the Shadow (Ruby), 30–31

sensational dying, expectations of, 11

“shadow,” securing the, 64

shaky camerawork, 99, 116, 178

Sharpshooter’s Last Sleep, A (Gardner), 33

Sheree (in Sick), 91, 92f, 99

Sherman’s March (McElwee), 87

Shoah (Lanzmann), 14

“shock sites,” Internet: and automated gaze at death, 139–40; contrasted with reputable documentaries, 113, 147–48; and death porn, 15; YouTube disavowal of label, 160–62, 165

Shooting Captured Insurgents (Edison), 48

Sick: The Life and Death of Bob Flanagan, Super-masochist (Dick): genesis of, 88; hidden physicality of cystic fibrosis, 90–91; including Sarah’s Sick Too short, 103–4; postmortem photographs in, 91, 99; S/M versus CF pain, 91–93, 103; unique “death of one’s own,” 93; and viewer identification, 103–4

Silberling, Brad, 145

Silverlake Life (Joslin and Friedman), 100f, 101f, 220n70; absence of “moment of death,” 68, 98, 104; audience disassociation from, 103–4; Black Star clips in, 96; as both screen and mirror, 98; displaying gay love, affection, grief, 95, 98–99; dual confinements of vcr and dying body, 97; focus on individualized death, 90, 104; immediacy of video in, 97–99; interview clips in, 68, 102; on movie fiction of closing corpse’s eyes, 68, 102, 146; production of as healing labor, 97; resurrecting the dead in, 102; showing physicality of death by aids, 68, 90, 94; Tom’s participation in filming, 94; as video diary by dying director, 88, 89, 93–94, 97; and viewer identification, 99, 103

Simac, Eda, 105, 106f

Sirk, Douglas, 67, 184

Six Feet Under (Ball), 23–26 (25f)

“slacktivism,” 159

Slager, Michael, 196

Slater, David, 15, 88

snuff films, 15, 112, 115, 163

Snyder, Ruth, 212n47

Snyder, Zack, 145
Sobchack, Vivian: on “cinematic signifier of death,” 44, 71; on deathbed documentaries, 104, 116; evaluating ethics of death footage, 19, 175; on identification of dying versus dead, 71, 184; propositions about documenting death, 44, 71; on revival of death rituals, 220n70; on showing animal death, 213n56; on signs of “filmmaker’s situation and stance,” 99; on simultaneous sympathy and alienation, 29, 157; six “gazes” of, 19–20, 115–16, 139–40, 173–75, 195. See also “Inscribing Ethical Space”

Socrates, 120, 222n32

Soltani, Neda, 171–72

Sontag, Susan: on designating a hell, 149; on documenting suffering and death, 17, 202; on function of images, 202; on link between photography and death, 29; on living with photographs of suffering, 64, 136; on photographs of atrocities, 155; seeing Holocaust photos as a girl, 42

Sorrows of Young Werther, The (Goethe), 123, 130, 150, 222n27

soul, fate of, 75

Southern Comfort (Davis), 88, 103

Spanish-American War, 47

spatial displacement of death, 12 spectacle-oriented online video, 4 spectacular death, 112

Sperb, Jason, 197

“Split-Second Sequence as the Bullets Struck” (Life), 53

Sprague, Gene, 142f, 143f; added musical accompaniment, 146; film building suspense toward, 141; jump as artful, sublime, 141, 144–47; memorials to, 150; as “modern-day Werther,” 150; no attempt to intervene with, 116; posthumous star status, 141, 150; romanticizing of, 124. See also Bridge, The (Steel)

“spreadable media,” 158

Srisai, Benjamin (character), 23–24, 25f staged scenes in melodrama, 210n2 stages of death (Kühbler-Ross), 73, 75–79, 83–84

Steel, Eric: concealing surveillance from public, 115; falsifying permit information, 112; intentionally “helpless gaze” of, 115–16; not obtaining informed consent, 113, 115; rejecting snuff, death porn labels, 112, 147–48; on seeing 9/11 jumpers, 130–31; stated reasons for using death footage, 113, 137, 147, 151. See also Bridge, The (Steel)

Steidle, Brian, 155–56, 158, 197–98

“stereotyping” by death blow, 34–35

Sterling, Alton, 192–93

Stern, Ricki, 155–56

Stiff (Roach), 218n33

stills, use of in Sick, 91

Sturken, Marita, 60–62

sublime spectacle: The Bridge as, 113, 126–27, 135–36, 140, 144, 150; suicide as, 113, 124–30 (129f), 150–51 sudden death, shifting attitudes toward, 12

“suffering face” of the dying, 83 suicide: aesthetics of, 124–32 (129f); assisted, 125–26; Camus’ comparison of to art, 120; and contagion, 122–24, 144, 150–51, 222n24; in Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon, 145; in fiction films, 124; by firearm, live footage of, 124–25, 214n80; and fundamental question of philosophy, 120; IPN coverage of, 121–22; medicalization of, 122; “negative pleasure” of, 146–47; in nineteenth century news, 121–22; as performance, 145–46; photographer saving woman from, 116; “postcard” views, 137; prevention of as stated goal for filmmakers, 113, 149; public versus private, 120–22; and the sublime, 113, 124–30 (129f), 150–51; technology required for capturing, 110–12; treatment of historically, 120–21, 221n14; treatment of in Middle Ages, 120–21. See also Bridge, The (Steel); World Trade Center jumpers, pictures of Suicide and Mass Suicide (Meerloo), 122–23

Suicide Box (Jeremijenko), 139, 148

Suicide on a Railway (Illustrated Police News), 121

Suicide Tourist, The (Zaritsky), 125

Sundberg, Annie, 155–56

Suu, Vu, 58, 60–62, 99
taboo in filming: of actual death, 2, 15, 18, 112; Bridge’s use of postproduction enhancement, 132, 137–40, 152, 177; death supplanting sex as, 2, 217n24; evaded by Internet, 127; of natural death, 13, 70, 72–73, 105; of pornography, 15, 38; public discourse on death as, 9; of “real” death, 181; of suicide, 118, 122, 132, 147

Tatane, Andries, 10

technology and filming death: digital technology, 203; early constraints of, 3–4; fewer constraints in modern documentary, 62; film versus video, 87–90; “fly on the wall” production mode, 82; immortality and immateriality, 203–4; interviews, 82; and lynching photographs, 63; manipulation of temporality, 203; postproduction enhancement in The Bridge, 137–40, 152, 177; Vietnam, 57. See also digital video (dv) documentary television: crime dramas’ sharpening, zooming of evidence film, 181–82; Six Feet Under (Ball), 23–26 (25f); viewer trust in, 215n82

temporality: capacity versus Internet conventions, 4; digital control of, 203; “too early,” “on time,” “too late,” 27–28 terminal diagnoses, concealment of, 12

Tet Offensive, 57–58

Texas Chainsaw Massacre, The, 17

The YNC, 162–64

Thomas, Anthony, 229n67

Thompson, Donald, 32

Till, Mamie, 195

time, cinematic manipulation of, 152

Time of Death (Hood), 72, 84, 87, 89, 104

To Die with Style!, 78

“too late”: Civil War battlefield photographs, 32–35; concentration camp photos, 41–42; in corpse photography, 28–29; corpse photography as, 28–29; as melodrama theme, 27

Topsy (elephant), 45–46, 61

Torchin, Leshu, 9–10, 158–59

Travis, Peter, 145

trigger warnings, 16–18, 209n46, 47 troop mobilization footage, 47, 49 tubes as feature of hospital death, 13, 74, 76, 83

Twitter, 162, 167, 171, 176

ubiquitous gaze, 20, 174–75, 195

Uncle Tom, 195

unique dying. See individualized, unique dying

United States v. Roth, 160

Universal Film Manufacturing Company, 49–51

U.S. death culture, 9–12, 77

Vanilla Sky (Crowe), 145

Vargas, Karina, 182–83

verticality, visual power of, 128, 145

Vertigo (Hitchcock), 144

videotape: allowing dying to tape themselves, 89; compared to film, 4, 87–90, 97–98, 114, 204; film of in Silverlake Life, 102; as immaterial, disembodied medium, 90; instant-replay technology, 56; use of video diaries, 89

Vietnam War: execution in Saigon, 58–60 (59f), 62; as “living room war,” 57; minimal censorship in, 33, 57–58, 215n83

Vimeo, 4

“viral” videos, 158, 162, 177, 181, 183

visual boundaries, living without, 6

“vital forces,” 126

vitrification, 220n71

Vogel, Amos, 2, 70, 216n6

voyeurism and death, 2, 83, 147

vulnerability, uneven allocation of, 188–89

Wall of Pain (Flanagan), 93

Walter, Tony, 76, 78, 95

Waltz with Bashir (Folman), 9

Wang Yue, 10

Ward, Adam, 57

war deaths, capture of: decisions regarding, 9; desire for “grievous war” pictures, 47, 57, 156; to diminish war, 150–51, 155–56; early attempts to film, 46–47; physical complications of, 47; Tet Offensive, 57–60 (59f); use of staged reenactments, 47–51 (50f)

Washington, Jesse, 38

watching as central, 8

Watchmen (Snyder), 145

Wenders, Wim, 89

“Werther effect,” 123

Whissel, Kristen, 47–48, 145

white screen signifying death, 26

Williams, Linda, 14, 27, 28, 64–65, 107
Williams, Pat Ward, 37
Wire, The (tv show), 185
Wiseman, Frederick, 88, 219n57
WITNESS video organization, 180–81
Woodward, Richard, 6 World Trade Center jumpers, pictures of:
  aesthetic values in, 139; The Falling Man (Drew), 127–30 (129f); initial news decisions regarding, 5; later accessibility to, 5–6; spectator objection to, 1
World War I, 49
World War II, 14, 33; 39–42, 64
Yates, David, 145
YouTube, 158; attention economy of, 167, 180; “bad video” aesthetic on, 182; comments leading to video removals, 190; comments on Agha-Soltan video, 176–77, 179, 184, 191; comments on Grant video, 177, 182, 197; “Community Guidelines” of, 160–62, 225n12; cultural conventions on, 4–5; embeds in Facebook and Twitter, 162; global availability of preventing censorship, 172; Juhasz on, 180; lack of contextualization on, 160, 189–97; maximum video length on, 221n10; “NicheTube” within, 199; not professional journalism, 174; obscurity of most death videos on, 199; as passive witnessing, 159; police body cams to counter, 198–99; racism on, 197; removal of files from, 204; “Replay” icon, 170; “Report” button and content moderation, 161; role of aesthetics in, 177–83
Zappruder film of JFK assassination: Abraham Zappruder’s filming, processing of, 52–53, 99, 173, 214n71; as “accidental gaze,” 173; bootleg copy of, 214n76; description of, 52; as evidence, 214n70; frame 313 headshot in, 53–55 (54f), 62; on Good Night America, 55; grainy quality of, 181; in JFK (Stone), 55; redeeming social importance of, 64; sales of, 172, 214n72
Zaritsky, John, 125
Zeindenberg, Leonard, 57
Zelizer, Barbie, 5, 41, 64, 128, 158, 210n4
This page intentionally left blank
This page intentionally left blank