Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: Gesture and Power 1

I. Performative Encounters, Political Bodies
1. Neither Native nor Stranger: Places, Encounters, Prophecies 37

II. Spirits, Bodies, and Performance in Belgian Congo
2. “A War between Soldiers and Prophets”: Embodied Resistance in Colonial Belgian Congo, 1921 71
3. Threatening Gestures, Immoral Bodies: Kingunza after Kimbangu 107

III. Civil Religion and Performed Politics in Postcolonial Congo
4. Dancing with the Invisible: Everyday Performances under Mobutu Sese Seko 137
5. Dancing Disorder in Mobutu’s Zaire: Animation Politique and Gendered Nationalisms 165
Part IV: Re-creating the Past, Performing the Future

Conclusion: Privileging Gesture and Bodies in Studies of Religion and Power  227

Glossary  233
Notes  235
References  253
Index  275