List of Illustrations

Maps

Map 0.1  The 10 provinces of the Unitary Republic of Indonesia, August 1950.  xii

Map 1.1  The spread of Islam across the Indonesian archipelago.  4

Map 2.1  The disintegration of the United States of Indonesia, January 1950.  117

Map 3.1  Movements linked to Darul Islam between 1949 and 1960.  157

Map 4.1  Masyumi’s results in the 1955 elections.  212

Map 4.2  The combined results of Indonesia’s Muslim parties in the 1955 elections.  213

Map 4.3  Masyumi’s results compared with the other main parties in the 1955 elections.  214

Plates

Plate 2.1  “Remember Madiun” (Hikmah, 17 September 1955).  106

Plate 3.1  The “oriental” transferring the contents of the “problem container” into a “synthesising machine” turned to “Western speed”, which transforms them into laws, ordinances and motions.  120

Plate 3.2  The Government Parties in Indonesia 1950–56 (by percentage of ministerial positions).  126
Plate 3.3  Prime Minister Ali Sastroamidjojo torn between his two wives, the PKI and Nahdlatul Ulama. 146

Plate 3.4  The PKI separating the principle of a unique God from the rest of Pancasila. 149

Plate 3.5  Homage given to Malenkov and Mao. 151

Plate 4.1  “Masyumi is implanted throughout Indonesia. Its influence demonstrates its victory”. 215

Plate 4.2  President Sukarno unveils his plan to dismantle the parties. 233

Plate 4.3  “The cabinet” does not know whether to give its “report” to “the Parliament” or “the National Council”. 241

Plate 4.4  While Sukarno gesticulates before a few New Life Movement troops, his objectives are already being accomplished in the regions thanks to the collaboration between the army, the people and the regional administrations. 243

Plate 5.1  An example of the secularisation of campaign themes: The 1955 electoral programme. 303

Plate 6.1  An advertisement for Lifebuoy soap made by Unilever which appeared regularly in Suara Partai Masjumi, Hikmah and Abadi in 1951 and 1952. 398