About the Author

Born and raised in Burma, Michael Aung-Thwin attended high school in South India before pursuing undergraduate and graduate studies in the United States. He received a Ph.D. from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, in 1976. He is presently professor of Asian studies at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa. Over the last decade his research has taken him to England, Sri Lanka, and Thailand, and he has made annual trips to Myanmar. He is the author of Myth and History in the Historiography of Early Burma: Paradigms, Primary Sources, and Prejudices (1998) and Pagan: The Origins of Modern Burma (1985).
