Contents

Preface ix

1 Downstream from the Centennial: Navigating Fifty Years of Policy Change 3
   SOPHIE BORWEIN AND CAROLYN HUGHES TUOHY

Part One: Generational Prospects, Then and Now

2 Dreams along a Journey 15
   MICHAEL VALPY

3 Discounting Now and Then 23
   JOSEPH HEATH

4 Postponed Adulthood, the Inequality Surge, and the Millennial Burden 31
   JOHN MYLES

5 Half a Century of Pension Reform in Canada 39
   DANIEL BÉLAND

Part Two: The Economy, the Environment, and the Federation

6 The Economy: From Innovation to Policy 49
   MICHELLE ALEXOPOULOS AND JON COHEN
Contents

7 Natural Resources, Federalism, and the Canadian Economy 59
KATHRYN HARRISON

8 Environmental Policy Transformations and Canada at 150 68
JENNIFER WINTER

9 The Environment as an Urban Policy Issue in Canada 79
MATTI SIEMIATYCKI

10 Canada’s Radical Fiscal Federation: The Next Fifty Years 87
KEVIN MILLIGAN

Part Three: Rethinking Sovereignty, Allegiance, and Rights

11 Reasonable Accommodation, Diversity, and the Supreme Court of Canada 99
EMMETT MACFARLANE

12 Invisibility, Wilful Blindness, and Impending Doom: The Future (if Any) of Canadian Federalism 106
JEAN LECLAIR

13 Canadian Federalism, Canadian Allegiance, and Economic Inequality 117
JEREMY WEBBER

14 Indigenous-Canadian Relations at the Sesquicentennial: An Opportunity for Real and Lasting Transformation 124
SHERYL LIGHTFOOT

15 Reconciliation with a Question Mark: Three Moments 132
CHRISTA SCHOLTZ

16 Reconciliation, Colonization, and Climate Futures 139
DEBORAH MCGREGOR

Part Four: Canada’s Borders and Beyond

17 Fifty Years of Canadian Immigration Policy 151
ANTJE ELLERMANN
18 From Gérin-Lajoie to USMCA: The Role of the Canadian Provinces in Trade Negotiation 159
STÉPHANE PAQUIN

19 Canada and the World: Managing Insecurity in a Changing Global Order 167
AISHA AHMAD

20 Has Canada Reached Policy Gridlock? 177
PETER JOHN LOEWEN AND ANDREW POTTER

Contributors 185