Contents

Published by

Bross, Kristina.
Little Else Than a Memory: Purdue Students Search for the Class of 1904.
Purdue University Press, 2014.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/47056.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/47056
CONTENTS

Preface vii

INTRODUCTION 1

A TALE OF TWO SATTERFIELDS:
THE POWER OF A PURDUE EDUCATION 37
   Eden Holmes

“THE ONLY COLORED DRUG STORE”:
RICHARD WIRT SMITH’S SUCCESS STORY, 1904–1911 55
   Maggie Mace

EMIL FARKAS AND WILLIAM RAYMOND DAVIS:
WINDY CITY BOYS 73
   Emily Durkin

JOSEPH BURKE KNAPP:
“A BARNACLE ON THE SHIP OF PROGRESS” 89
   Alexandria Nickolas
Fitting In but Sticking Out: The Life of an Immigrant Student at Purdue in 1904
Lindy Schubring

Far from Home and Far from Normal: The Experience of an International Student on an American College Campus at the Turn of the Twentieth Century
Vivian Gu

Lyla Vivian Marshall Harcoff: The Pursuits of a Small-Town Dreamer
Carolyn Griffith

“The Eternal Feminine”: An Examination of the Life and Times of the Twentieth-Century New University Woman through Cecil Clare Crane
Cedar Marie Woodworth

The Lost Bandsman and His Band
Paige Zimmerman

Just Harry
Lily Anderson

Epilogue: Purdue’s Past through Purdue’s Present
Susan Curtis

Biographical Cameos
223