Contents

FOREWORD vii
EDITORIAL INTRODUCTION ix

CHAPTER 1
Ulrich Baumann and François Guesnet
Kristallnacht—Pogrom—State Terror: A Terminological Reflection 1

CHAPTER 2
Wolf Gruner
“Worse Than Vandals.” The Mass Destruction of Jewish Homes and Jewish Responses during the 1938 Pogrom 25

CHAPTER 3
Maximilian Strnad
A Question of Gender! Spaces of Violence and Reactions to Kristallnacht in Jewish-Gentile Families 51

CHAPTER 4
Mary Fulbrook
Social Relations and Bystander Responses to Violence: Kristallnacht November 1938 69

CHAPTER 5
Norman Domeier
A Scream, Then Silence. Kristallnacht and the American Journalists in Nazi Germany: The “Night of Broken Glass” as an Unwanted Transnational Media Event 91

CHAPTER 6
Anne-Christin Klotz
Journalism as a Weapon: Jewish Journalists from Warsaw and the Production of Knowledge during Hitler’s Rise to Power in 1933 and the November Pogroms in 1938 115

CHAPTER 7
Jeffrey Koerber

CHAPTER 8
Stephanie Seul
The Absence of “Kristallnacht” and Its Aftermath in BBC German-language Broadcasts during 1938–1939 171
CHAPTER 9
Gershon Greenberg
Orthodox Jewish Reflective Responses to Kristallnacht

CHAPTER 10
Hasia Diner
1938: American Jews Respond to a Very Bad Year

CHAPTER 11
Steven J. Ross
The Ambiguous Legacy of Kristallnacht: Nazis, Jewish Resistors, and Anti-Semitism in Los Angeles

CHAPTER 12
Alexander Walther
Jewish Anti-Fascism? “Kristallnacht” Remembrance in the GDR between Propaganda and Jewish Self-Assertion

CHAPTER 13
Liat Steir-Livny
“Kristallnacht in Tel Aviv”: Nazi Associations in the Contemporary Israeli Socio-Political Debate

CHAPTER 14
Nathalie Ségeral
The Kristallnacht Paradigm in Narratives by Survivors of the Rwandan and Rohingya Genocides

CHAPTER 15
Baijayanti Roy
The Long Shadow of the “Kristallnacht” on the “Gujarat Pogrom” in India? A Comparative Analysis

ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS

ABOUT THE USC CASDEN INSTITUTE