CONTENTS

List of Figures

INTRODUCTION
Terrortimes and Terrorsapes?
Rethinking Continuities of Space, Time, and Memory
Volker Benkert and Michael Mayer

1. Contested Spaces: Criminalization of Marginalized Communities in Former Habsburg Lands in the First Half of the Twentieth Century: The Case Study of Austrian Zigeuner (“Gypsies”)
Ursula K. Mindler-Steiner

2. Space and Ideas of National, Ethnic, or Religious Homogeneity: Polish and German Jewish Survivors in the Recovered Territories in Post–World War II Poland
Anna Cichopek-Gajraj

PART 1. SPATIAL AND TEMPORAL CONTINUITIES

PART 2. STATES AND ACTORS

3. States as Contributors to or Enablers of Violence: Colonial Thinking Is Still with Us: Investigating the Colonial Record on the Occupation of Jambi and Rengat (1948–49) in the Indonesian War of Independence
Bart Luttikhuis

4. Asymmetric Power Relations: Jihad Made in Germany? Creating Terrorsapes through German Undercover Intelligence Operations against Britain and Russia in Afghanistan, India, and Persia during the First World War: An Entangled History of Violence
Michael Mayer

5. Third-Party Actors and the Question of Genocide: Imperialism and the Question of Genocide in Colonial-Era Africa
Jason Bruner
PART 3. IMAGINATION AND EMOTIONS

6. Utopian Ideologies and Their Limits: Private Lives in Wartime France: Desertion, Divorce, and Deprivation
   Rachel G. Fuchs

   Benjamin Beresford

PART 4. MEMORY CONTINUITIES

8. Crafting the History of Terrortimes 1: Manufactured Memory: Crafting the Cult of the Great Patriotic War
   Yan Mann

9. Crafting the History of Terrortimes 2: Compartmentalized Memory: Coming to Terms with the Nazi Past and the Discourse on German Sufferings at the Turn of the Millennium
   Volker Benkert

10. Terrortimes in Transnational Perspective 1: Between National and European Memory? About Temporal and Spatial (Dis)Continuities in Post-1989 Dutch Memory Culture
    Ilse Raaijmakers

11. Terrortimes in Transnational Perspective 2: Remembering the Holocaust: Opportunities and Challenges
    GeORGi Verbeeck

EPILOGUE

The Yardstick of History and the Measure of Redemption: Difficult Pasts in the United States and Germany Today
   Volker Benkert

About the Contributors

281