List of Illustrations

Figure 1. Star singer Emma Turolla. 21
Figure 2. Interior of the Semper Theater. 34
Figure 3. The Second Semper Theater in 1878. 36
Figure 4. The royal box in Dresden. 38
Figure 5. Realistic stage sets for Tannhäuser in 1866. 55
Figure 6. Caricature of Richard Strauss’ orchestration of Elektra. 78
Figure 7. Count Skarbek, founder of the Skarbek Theater. 92
Figure 8. The Skarbek Theater, built in 1842. 93
Figure 9. Auditorium of the Skarbek Theater. 94
Figure 10. The new Lemberg Theater, opened in 1900. 105
Figure 11. A share certificate issued by the National Theater Association. 141
Figure 12. The Czech National Theater in Prague. 144
Figure 13. Original program of the Czech National Theater’s guest performance in Vienna. 171
Figure 14. Positivist costumes for The Bartered Bride in 1892. 172
Figure 15. Symbolist stage sets for Libuše. 187
Figure 16. European landscape by the studio Briosi, Burghart, and Kautsky. 240

Music example 1. Die Folkunger by E. Kretschmer. 59
Music example 2. The dance of the seven veils in Salome. 77
Music example 3. The clock symbolizing the ticking life of the Polish nation in Moniuszko’s Straszny Dwór. 113
Music example 4. Dramatic scene from the fourth act of Konrad Wallenrod. 116
Music example 5. Folkloristic dance in J. I. Paderewski’s Manru. 123
Music example 6. Opening scene from the musical melodrama Hippodamie. 167
Music example 7. Aria to the moon in Rusalka. 182
Music example 8. Pohádka o Honzovi. 183
Music example 9. Scene from Lohengrin accenting deutsch (German). 208
Music example 10. Nationally encoded Marsh from

The Mastersingers of Nuremberg. 210

Music example 11. National mobilization in

The Brandenburgers in Bohemia. 212

Music example 12. Construction of Polish national music

in A Life for the Czar. 213

Music example 13. Final scene from Halka. 215