Bibliography of Works Consulted

I. ARCHIVAL SOURCES

Blanche Stuart Scott Collection, accession no. XXXX-0062. National Air and Space Museum Archives, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C.

George Palmer Putnam Collection of Amelia Earhart Papers. Archives and Special Collections, Purdue University Libraries, West Lafayette, Indiana.

Louise McPhetridge Thaden Archive, accession no. XXXX-0006. National Air and Space Museum Archives, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C.

Ruth Nichols Collection. International Women’s Air and Space Museum, Cleveland, Ohio.

II. BOOKS

III. Articles

“An Airy Chat With the Editor.” Popular Aviation 7 (November 1930): 10, 50.

“Anne Morrow Makes It ’We Three.’” Literary Digest 100 (9 March 1929): 38, 43, 46.

“Aviatrix Must Sign Away Life to Learn Trade.” Chicago Defender, 8 October 1921, 2.

“Chicago Girl Is a Full-Fledged Aviatrix Now.” Chicago Defender, 1 October 1921, 1.

“City Greets Miss Earhart; Girl Flier, Shy and Smiling, Shares Praise With Mates.” New York Times, 7 July 1928, 1.

“Five Acres and a Plane.” House & Garden 87 (February 1945): 42–45.

“Girl Aviator is Teaching All Students of San Antonio Schools the Science of Flying.” San Antonio (TX) Light, 21 February 1915, 31.

“Girl Aviator Will Exhibit at Seguin.” San Antonio (TX) Light, 4 May 1915, 6.

“International Aviation Meet” [Display advertisement], Fly 3 (October 1911): Back cover.

“Kate Stinson Used Richfield Gas, Richlube Oil.” Bakersfield (CA) Californian, 14 December 1917, 11.

“Lady Bird’ Here.” Syracuse (NY) Herald, 26 September 1911, 5.

“Miss Harriet Quimby Dies in Airship Fall.” New York Times, 2 July 1912, 1, 7.

“Miss Katherine Stinson’s Looping at Night.” Aerial Age Weekly 2 (17 January 1916): 42.4.

“Miss Nichols Hails Relief Plane Unit.” New York Times, 2 June 1940, 30.

“Miss Stinson’s Commendable Work.” Aerial Age 2 (22 March 1915): 15.

Newell, Mary O’Connor. “She’s a High Flyer.” Oakland (CA) Tribune, 25 April 1915, 3.

“President Hears Plea for Women’s Rights; Amelia Earhart Cites Equality in the Air.” New York Times, 23 September 1932, 1.

“Ruth Law Wants to Fight Germans.” Gettysburg (PA) Times, 14 April 1917, 3.
“San Antonio Girl Inspires the Texas Esquadrille.” San Antonio (TX) Light, 19 August 1917, 9.
“Says With Aircraft We Can Win the War.” New York Times, 14 June 1917, 2.
“Student, Worker, as Well as a Flier.” New York Times, 4 June 1928, 2.

“Two Plunge From Sky to Death in the Sea.” Los Angeles Times, 2 July 1912, 1, 8.

Unpaged clipping, George Palmer Putnam Collection of Amelia Earhart Papers. Archives and Special Collections, Purdue University Libraries, West Lafayette, Indiana.

“Woman Aviator Seeks Mail Job.” Stars and Stripes, 10 January 1919, 3

“Women Flyers Set New Endurance Record of 196 Hours.” U.S. Air Services 17 (September 1932): 30.
“‘Youngest Aviatrix’ Must Pass Title to Her Sister.” San Antonio (TX) Light, 21 June 1914, 19.