Index

Page numbers in italics refer to illustrations.

A
Aerial Age magazine, on Stinson, 36
Aerial Age Weekly, on Law’s achievements, 34
Aerial warfare, Douhet on, 80–81, 82
Aero Club of America, 4, 34
Aero Digest (journal): Nichols article in, 95; Stinson article in, 43; Thaden article in, 76–77
Aeronautical technology. See technology
Aéropostale airlines, 126–28
Aerospace development, expenditures on, 154
African American women pilots, 2–3
Ailerons, 19, 45
Aircraft: autogiros, 54, 59, 142; bombers, 81, 83, 137; engines, problems of, 21; headless biplanes, 33; jet-propelled planes, 148; light airplanes, 143–44; negative stagger (of biplane wings), 73–74; post-World War II changes to, 147–48; private ownership of, 140–41; single-engined airplanes, numbers of parts in, 181n66; stabilizers, Quimby on, 19; tractor monoplanes, 14, 45. See also names of specific aircraft
Aircraft magazine, on Belmont Meet, 5
Air Force Convair TF-102A Delta Dagger, 96
Air France, 126
Airline stewardesses, 144, 145, 181n19
Air Line Stewardesses Association, 181n19
Air Mail Service, 38
Air Research and Development Command (ARDC), 113–14
Air travel, safety of, 58
Air Travel magazine, Law article in, 42
Airwoman magazine, Thaden article in, 74
Alcock, John, 35
Alcott, Eve (The Steep Ascent character), 131–33
Alcott, Gerald (The Steep Ascent character), 131, 133
American Airways, 75
“An American Aviatrix Abroad” (Nichols), 97–98
American Friends Service Committee, 102
American landscape, belief in power of, 108
American Magazine: Nichols article in, 99–100; Stinson article in, 43
American West, power of, 108–9
“America’s Reaction to Social Aviation” (Nichols), 99
Amundsen, Roald, 34
Anderson, Betty Baxter, 142
Anderson, Judy (“Sky Girl” character), 105–12, 134, 177n57
Anderson, Nels (“Sky Girl” character), 111
Anthony, Susan B., 25 anti-Semitism, Lindbergh’s, 137
Apollo space program, 59–60, 134–36
apparel, for women pilots, 21
ARDC (Air Research and Development Command), 113–14
"Are American Women Holding Aviation Back?" (Earhart), 67
Army Air Corps, Women’s Flying Training Detachment, 79
Army Aviation Reserve Corps, women in, 35
Arnold, H. H., 76
astronauts, women as, 101
Audemars, Edmond, 4, 23
autogiros, 54, 59, 142 aviation (flying): democratic optimism of, 136; flight versus, 89–92; gender-neutrality of, 63; Lindbergh on, 124, 138; mystique of, link with mystique of Western frontier, 15–16; as national obsession in U.S., 26; post-World War II, 140–44; Quimby on, 15, 18, 26; space-flight, comparison with, 138–39; Thaden on, 91–92. See also women in aviation Aviation (journal), on Earhart, 69 aviation age, beginnings of, 1–9 aviation age, end of, 140–56; aircraft, post-World War II changes to, 147–48; aviation, corporatization of, 153–55; aviation post-World War II, 140–44; Cochran and, 146–49; conclusions on, 154–56; early women aviators, ends of flying careers of, 149–52; flying, ordinariness of, 153; new air age, 143–44; technology of postwar aviation, 145–46; women in aviation, fading prominence of, 152–53; women in aviation, post-World War II, 144–46
Aviation Country Club, Inc., 98, 99 aviation country clubs, 99
“Aviation for You and for Me” (Nichols), 52, 98 aviation professionals, Earhart articles for, 57
Aviation Reserve Corps, 39 aviation technology. See technology
Aviation Week: aviation ad in, 153–55; on Cochran’s flights, 148
B
Baker, Ray Stannard, 57
Baltimore Sun, on Law, 42
Barnes, Florence (“Pancho”), 65, 82
Bathurst, Gambia, in Listen! The Wind, 121, 128
Baum, L. Frank, 142
Baym, Nina, 108
Beachey, Lincoln, 3–4, 5, 13, 28, 36
Beech Aircraft, Thaden’s work at, 73
Beechcraft D-17 and D-17W Staggerwing planes, 146, 148
“Behind the Ballyhoo” (Nichols), 99–100
Bell, Alexander Graham, 19, 120
Belmont International Aviation Tournament (Belmont Meet), 4, 10–11, 12
Bendix race, 7, 55, 72–73, 100, 147
Bennett, Floyd, 176n39
Bernhardt, Sarah, 162n18
Bernstein, Solomon (“Sky Girl” character), 106–7 bicycles, 25
Biograph Company, 11
Blériot, Louis, 4
Blériot XI-2, 14
Bluford, Guy, 2
Blunt, Anne, 162n18
Bly, Nellie (Elizabeth Cochrane), 16
BOAC (British Overseas Airways Corporation), 148
Boeing 707 planes, 148
Boeing Air Transport, 75, 144
Boeing bombers, 137
Boeing Model 307 Stratoliner, 137
bombers, 81, 83, 137
Boston Aviation Meet, 10, 14, 28, 32
Bourne, Randolph, 16
British Overseas Airways Corporation (BOAC), 148
Brookins, Walter, 4, 5
Brown, Arthur W., 35
Brown, Margery, 7–8, 91
Brown, Willa, 2
Bumppo, Natty (Leatherstocking books character), 15–16, 110, 177n50
Burnham, Margaret, 141–42
Bush, Vannevar, 76
Butcher, Fanny, 56
Byrd, Richard E., 50, 101–2

C
California, description of, 15
CAP (Civil Air Patrol), 96, 102, 150–51 careers in aviation, 58
Carlstrom, Victor, 33
Carter, Henry (Frank Leslie), 16
castor oil, 21
Catt, Carrie Chapman, 14 celebrity, nature of, 40
Central Air Lines, 62–65
Chamberlain, John, 124–25
Chamberlin, Clarence, 96, 100
Chicago Tribune, review of Earhart book in, 56
Christian Science Monitor, Nichols article in, 101
Church, Ellen, 144
Civil Air Patrol (CAP), 96, 102, 150–51
civil aviation, 82, 97–98
Cleveland, Reginald, 142 clothing for women pilots, 21
Cochran, Jacqueline: in Bendix race, 72–73; career, 146–49; mentioned, 78; at National Aviation Forum, 76; national prominence, lack of, 153; U.S. Army Air Corps and, 79; WASP and, 145; as Women in Space Earliest funder, 114
Cochrane, Elizabeth (Nellie Bly), 16
cockpit canopies, 118
Coleman, Bessie, 2–3
Collins, Eileen, 116
The Coming Air Age (Cleveland and Neville), 142
The Command of the Air (Il Domino del’Aria, Douhet), 80–81, 110 commercial aviation: changes in, 125–26; expansion of, 59; growing infrastructure of, 58; jet-propelled service, 148; ordinariness of, 153; Thaden’s support for, 75–76; in U.S., creation of, 137
Consolidated B-24 bomber, 137
Cooper, James Fenimore, 15, 110
Corn, Joseph, 26, 45–46, 85, 91, 111, 134
Cosmopolitan (magazine): Earhart articles in, 53, 57–60; Earhart as aviation editor, 53
Crosley Radio Corporation, 95
Crosson, Marvel, 65
cultural stereotyping. See gender roles and cultural stereotyping culture: American, changes in, 50–52; aviation as culturally unifying, 59; aviation’s projected impact on, 26; influence on women, 64–65
Currie, Barton W., 98
Curtis Publishing Company, 140, 141
Curtiss, Glenn, 3, 4–5, 19, 45, 120
Curtiss Exhibition Company, 3, 5
Curtiss JN-4 “Jenny” planes, 31, 154
Curtiss Model 56 Thrush, 72
Index

D
de Laroche, “Baroness” Raymonde, 23, 24 demonstration teams, 12
Denison House (Boston), 49
Department of Commerce, on gender equity of aviators, 67
Deutsche Luft Hansa, 126, 127 distance records, 33, 37–38, 43
Dixon, Franklin W. (John W. Duffield), 141
Domínguez Meet (First in America Aviation Meet), 3–4
Il Domino del’ Aria (The Command of the Air, Douhet), 80–81, 110
Douglas, Deborah, 85
Douglas DC-4 planes, 103
Douhet, Giulio, 80–81, 82, 85, 110
DO-X planes, 126, 127–28
Duffield, John W. (Franklin W. Dixon), 141
Dutrieu, Hélène, 13, 23, 42

E
Earhart, Amelia (“Lady Lindy”), 49–70; and American culture, changes in, 50–52; in Bendix race, 72–73, 100; credo of, 61; disappearance and presumed death, 55, 149, 184n31; early life and career, 49–50; on gender-specific competitive rules, 100; introduction to, 6; on landing in fog, 18on 47; legacy of, 55; Lindbergh and, 138; Lockheed Vega of, 54, 73; marriage, 53–54; mentioned, 77, 78; National Air Marking Program and, 150; Nichols and, 94; perceptions of, 68–70; as personification of American women in aviation, 1–2; public attention to, 52–53; publicist for, 51; records held by, 54–55; reputation, 55, 69–70; successors to, question of, 71; Thaden’s written farewell to, 87; transport license, 166n12; as Westerner, 177n57; as women’s spokesperson, 152; on work-life balance, 92
Earhart, Amelia (“Lady Lindy”), writings: aeronautical writings, 6, 53, 54, 55–61; on gender stereotypes, 56, 66–68; periodical writings, 56–61; themes of, 58, 59; on women, 61–65
The Early Birds of Aviation, Inc., 149, 184n32
Earth Shine (Lindbergh), 134–35, 139, 151
Eastern Air Transport, 75 ecstasy, flight-borne, 134. See also transcendence of flight education, gender stereotyping in, 64, 66
Ely, Eugene, 4, 5, 13
Emergency Peace Campaign, 96, 101–2 endurance flights, 74–75
Epps, Jeanette J., 2
equal rights (Lucretia Mott) amendment, 62
Esnault-Pelterie, Robert, 19 exhibition flying, 12, 33, 35–39
“Exploring Air Lanes” (Quimby), 18

F
F-86J planes, 148
Fadiman, Clifton, 1, 125, 130
FAI (Fédération Aeronautique International), 4 feminism: Earhart and, 69, 70; Law and Stinson sisters and, 29; Quimby and, 14–16; women’s movement, 29–30 fighter aces, 30
First in America Aviation Meet (Domínguez Meet), 3–4
Fisher Folks (Griffith), 11
Flickinger, Donald, 113, 114 flight: flying versus, 89–92; Lindbergh on, 122, 124; in The Steep Ascent, 133–34; Thaden on, 93. See also aviation (flying) flight attendants, 144, 145, 183n19
“Flyers and Flying” (Quimby), 20
Fly Girls: How Five Daring Women Defied All Odds . . . (O’Brien), 150 flying. See aviation (flying)
“Flying Around the North Atlantic” (Lindbergh), 120–22
“Flying for Sport” (Nichols), 98–99
Flying Girl books, 141, 142
“Flying Is Changing Women” (Brown), 8
Flying magazine, Law article in, 42
“Flying the Atlantic” (Earhart), 57, 61
Fly magazine: on Nassau Meet, 12–13; Quimby on cover of, 160n37
Ford Tri-Motor planes, 58, 118
Fortune magazine, on future of flying, 143
Fosdick, Harry Emerson, 102 freedom, as benefit of aviation, 103 frontiers, 15–16, 108–11, 115
The Fun of It (Earhart), 56, 66
Funston, Frederick, 39 future, Earhart’s vision of, 59–61
“The Future of the Airplane” (Peary), 47–48

G
Gagarin, Yuri, 115
Ganesha (Hindu elephant-headed god), 23
Garros, Roland, 5, 18, 23
Gates, Eleanor, 34, 47
Gatty, Harold, 118, 154
Gault, Don (“Sky Girl” character), 105–6
Gee Bee QED planes, 148
gender roles and cultural stereotyping: in airport culture, 107; Earhart on, 61–68; of Law and the Stinson sisters, 44; Lindberghs and, 123–24; Quimby on, 21–22; in space program, 136
Genthe, Arnold, 11
Gentry, Viola, 65
Germany, Lindbergh and Hitler-era, 137

Gift From the Sea (Lindbergh), 151–52
Giles, Nell, 141
Gillies, Betty, 76
Gilman, Charlotte Perkins, 26–27
Girl Aviators stories, 141–42
Girls, aviation books for, 141–42
Girls at Work in Aviation (Meyer), 144–45
Glenn, John, 136
Goddard, Robert H., 117
“Go Get the Kaiser” (Law), 40–41, 43
Golden Age of Aviation: characteristics of, 8; end of, 138, 140–56; Thaden’s memoir and, 93; vanishing dreams of, 136–39
Good Housekeeping magazine, Quimby article in, 24
Gordon, Louis (“Slim”), 50
Gordon Bennett International Cup, 4
Grahame-White, Cecil, 4
Grahame-White, Claude, 13
Greeley-Smith, Rixola, 47, 165n61
Gregory, Elizabeth Hiatt, 12, 24–25
Griffith, D. W., 11
Guest, Amy Phipps, 50, 68

H
Halliburton, Erle P., 65
Hamilton, Charles K., 5
Harcourt, Alfred, 120
Hardy, Adelaide, 146
Harmon Trophy, 73, 147
Harvard-Boston Aero Meet, 4
Harvieuc, Jeanne, 23
Haviland Comet, 148
headless biplanes, 33
Hearst, William Randolph, 16, 57
Heath, Mary, 68, 72
“The Heron and the Astronaut” (Lindbergh), 134
Hewlett, Hilda, 52
High, Wide, and Frightened (Thaden), 79, 84–85, 87–89
Home Magazine, Earhart article in, 63–64 homes, gender stereotyping in, 64
Hoover, Herbert, 62, 67
Houpert, Andre, 36–37
House & Garden magazine, on private aircraft ownership, 140
“How a Woman Learns to Fly” (Quimby), 21–22
“How I Won My Aviator’s License” (Quimby), 17
Hoxsey, Arch, 4, 5, 28
Hubbard Medal (National Geographic Society), 119
Hulbert, Murray, 42
I
“I Gotta Fly” (Giles), 141
“Immersion in Life” (Lindbergh), 134 individuals, benefits of flight to, 86, 91–92
Ingalls, Laura, 100
“In the World of the People Who Fly” (Quimby), 18
“Is It Safe For You to Fly?” (Earhart), 58
“I Want to Be a Transport Pilot” (Patterson), 52
J
Jacqueline Cochran Cosmetic Company, 146
“A Japanese Aeronaut to Startle the World” (Quimby), 11
Jemison, Mae, 2
jet-propelled planes, 148
Jiles, Iris (“Noble Experiment” character), 81–85
Johnson, Kelly, 68
Johnstone, Ralph, 5 journalism, stunt stories, 16
Jurek, Richard, 135
K
Klemin, Alexander, 97, 175n15
Knabenshue, Roy, 3–4, 5
Kunz, Opal, 77
L
Ladies’ Home Journal: Nichols articles in, 98–99; on private aircraft ownership, 140; Thaden, profile of, 72
“The Ladies Take the Air” (Mingos), 52
“Lady Lindy.” See Earhart, Amelia
Langley, Samuel P., 57
Lansbury, George, 101–2
Last Flight (Earhart), 56, 60, 64, 68
Lavell, Edith, 142
Law, Ruth: achievements, 29, 33; on aviation, 45, 46; background, 32; at Boston Aviation Meet, 28; celebrity of, 33–35; contributions as flier, 6; Curtiss Model D and, 42; end of flying career, 149; exhibition flying, 35–36; on gender-based discrimination, 31; mentioned, 52, 58; as military recruiter, 35, 42, 41–42; Peary on, 48; publicist for, 51; Quimby’s death and, 14; Thaden on, 77; on U.S. aircraft in World War I, 31; on women in the military, 40–42; Wright Model B and, 32; writings, 40–44
Lawrence, Charles L., 99
Leblanc, Alfred, 4
Leslie, Frank (Henry Carter), 16
Leslie’s Illustrated Weekly: nature of, 16–17; Quimby at, 10, 11, 17
Index

M’Evoy, J. P., 47
Meyer, Dickey, 144–45
Miles Mohawk plane, 131
military service: Law on women in, 40–41; women’s equity in, 63
Miller, Frieda S., 145
Mingos, Howard, 52
Mitchell, William (“Billy”), 80
Model 17 Staggerwing (Beech Aircraft), 73–74
Moisant, John, 4, 5, 12
Moisant, Matilde: exhibition flying by, 5; licensing of, 12; mentioned, 23; records set by, 13; retirement, 28; Rich on, 36; Thaden on, 77
Moisant Aviation School, 12, 22
Moisant family, Quimby and, 12
Moisant International Aviators, 5, 12
“The Moral Aspect of Aviation” (Brown), 8
Morrow, Anne. See Lindbergh, Anne
Morrow, Constance, 129–30
Morrow, Dwight, 117–18
Morrow, Elizabeth, 118 motion picture industry, growth of, 50–51 myths of the frontier, 108, 109

N
Nassau Boulevard Aerodrome International Aviation Meet (Nassau Meet), 12–13
National Aeronautic Association, 76, 102
National Aeronautic Magazine, Earhart article in, 60
National Aeronautics (journal), on Cochran, 147
National Air Marking Program, 150
National Air Transport, 75
National Aviation Forum (1940), 76, 78–79

National Geographic magazine, Lindbergh article in, 120
National Geographic Society: Hubbard Medal, 119; Special Gold Medal for Earhart, 54
National Woman’s Party, 62
National Women’s Air Derby (Powder Puff Derby): airfield photograph of, 73; Earhart at, 53; gender stereotyping in news coverage of, 65; Nichols in, 95; responsibility and, 91; Thaden article on, 76–77; Thaden at, 72, 89, 90; winners of, 7 nature and natural world: belief in power of, 108; technology versus, 127–28
Navy, women in, 34
negative stagger (of biplane wings), 73–74
Nehru, Jawaharlal, 103
Neville, Leslie, 142
new air age, 143–44
newsreels, growth of, 51
“New Things in the Aviation World” (Quimby), 19–20
New Woman, Quimby as exemplar of, 16
New Yorker: Listen! The Wind review, 130; North to the Orient review, 125; The Steep Ascent review, 134
New York Herald Tribune, Nichols article in, 100
New York Journal and American, on Cochran, 147
New York Times: on Earhart, 69; Earhart’s books, reviews of, 56; Harvard-Boston Aero Meet, ad for, 4; on Law’s achievements, 33–34; Lindbergh essays in, 5; Listen! The Wind review, 130; Nichols article in, 99–100; North to the Orient review, 124–25; on Quimby, 17
New York Times Book Review: North to the Orient review, 125; The Steep Ascent review, 134
Nichols, Ruth, 94–116; aircraft used by, 147–48; in Bendix race, 72–73; CAP and, 150–51; death, 114; Earhart and, 62, 70, 94; early life and career, 94–96; frontiers and, 109–12, 115; on gender-specific competitive rules, 100; humanitarian causes, participation in, 101–3, 150; introduction to, 6; Lockheed Vega and, 96; mentioned, 52, 78; in National Women’s Air Derby, 65, 95; Rearwin Ken-Royce at Clover Field, 73; Richey controversy and, 63; on societal changes from aviation, 104–5; space program, interest in, 113–16, 136; as spokesperson for women aviators, 155
Nicholson, Harold, 120
Nineteenth Amendment, 29, 51
Ninety-Nines (professional organization for women in aviation): on Earhart, 69; Earhart’s article for, 57; establishment of, 62; name of, 168n42; Nichols and, 95; Thaden on, 76, 77, 78
“Noble Experiment” (Thaden), 79–86
North American F-86 planes, 148
North American P-51 Mustang planes, 83, 147, 148
Northrop Gamma 2G planes, 148
Northrop T-38 supersonic training planes, 148
North to the Orient (Lindbergh), 7, 122–25, 127
Noyes, Blanche, 55, 72, 150
O
O’Brien, Keith, 150
Odlum, Floyd B., 146, 148
O’Donnell, Gladys, 53, 77
Ogburn, William Fielding, 142–43
Oliver, Charles, 32, 51
Omlie, Phoebe, 52, 78, 150
Otero, Miguel A., 38
Outing Magazine, on First in America Aviation Meet, 4 P
Pan American Airlines, 126
Pan American Airways (originally Airlines), 126, 148
Pankhurst, Emmeline, 14
Patterson, Alicia, 52
Patterson, Ethel Lloyd, 15
Paul, Alice, 63
Paulhan, Louis, 3
Peary, Robert E., 34, 47–48
Pégoud, Adolphe, 36
Pershing, John J., 39
P-51 Mustang planes, 83, 147, 148
Pickens, William H., 36, 38, 40, 51
Pictorial Review: Brown’s article in, 8; Nichols article in, 100 pilots: as new race, 111–12; as pioneers, 103–4; writings by, 1. See also women in aviation Piper Aircraft, 143
Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, Thaden article in, 75, 77
Poore, C. G., 125
Index

Popular Aviation magazine: Brown’s articles in, 7–8; Thaden at, 72 popular communication, changing means of, 50
Porto Praia, Cape Verde Islands, Aéropostale base at, 121, 127–28
Post, Augustus, 5
Post, Wiley, 118, 154
Powder Puff Derby. See National Women’s Air Derby power, of airplanes, 133 professional press agents (publicists), 51 progress, aviation as enhancing national belief in, 58–59 Project WISE (Women in Space Earliest project), 114, 116 publicity, professionalization of, 40 public relations industry, 51
Pulitzer, Joseph, 16
Purdue University, Earhart’s association with, 55
Putnam, George Palmer, 50, 51, 53–54, 166n14

Raiche, Bessica, 3
Railey, Hilton H., 50, 68, 69
Rand, Jimmy “Hawkeye” (“Sky Girl” character), 106–10
Rasche, Thea, 52, 73
reality, individuals’ relationships to external reality, 126–27
Rearwin Ken-Royce planes, 95
Relief Wings, 96, 102, 150
Republic P-47 Thunderbolt planes, 146–47
Rich, Doris, 36
Richey, Helen, 55, 62–63, 82, 150
Rickenbacker, Eddie, 150
Ride, Sally, 116
Roe, A. V., 4
Roosevelt, Eleanor, 54, 102, 105
Russell, Mrs. Bertrand, 64
Ruth Law’s Flying Circus, 35–36
“Ruth Nichols Soars Six Miles Above City . . .” (Nichols), 99–100

San Francisco Bohemian Club, 11
Santos-Dumont, Alberto, 4 schools, gender stereotyping in, 64, 66
Scientific American: on aviation, romance of, 141; on Harvard-Boston Aero Meet, 4
Scott, Blanche Stuart (Tomboy of the Air), 3, 13, 14, 28
Scott, David Meerman, 135
The Search for the Lost Flyers or Ted Scott Over the West Indies (Dixon), 141
Seeley, Jack, 147
self-discovery: Lindbergh and, 7, 122, 138, 152; in The Steep Ascent, 132; Thaden and, 92 self-knowledge, responsibility of, 61 self-reliance, Lindbergh on, 129

Quimby, Harriet, 10–27; achievements, 5–6; at Boston Aviation Meet, 28; conclusions on, 27; death, 14, 28, 142; early life and career, 10–12; English Channel flight, 14, 22–23; feminism and, 14–15; on flying, 26; flying attire, 21; Gregory’s farewell essay on, 24–25; interviews with, 15; legacy of, 25–26; manager for, 51; mentioned, 78; as Moisant International Aviators member, 5; as New Woman, 16; on own interest in flying, 17; publicity photograph of, 13; Thaden on, 77; as Westerner, 15; as women’s spokesperson, 152; writings, 11, 16–20

R

Q

S
self-sufficiency, flying and, 91 series books on flying, 141
Seversky planes, 146, 147
sexism. See gender roles and cultural stereotyping “Shall I Let My Child Fly?” (Thaden), 76
“Shall You Let Your Daughter Fly?” (Earhart), 66
Sherman, Beatrice, 134
single-engined airplanes, numbers of parts in, 181
“Sky Girl” (Nichols), 97, 104, 105–13
Smith, C. R., 150
Smith, Elinor, 68
Snook, Neta, 49
social aviation, 99
The Social Effects of Aviation (Ogburn), 142–43
Sopwith, T. O. M., 13
Southern Aviation magazine, on Stinson (Marjorie), 39
Spencer, G. K., 52
Sperry, Lawrence, 34–35
Spirit of St. Louis (aircraft), 154 spirituality of flight, 138. See also transcendence of flight
“The Sportsman Flies His Plane” (Nichols), 99
Sportsman Pilot (magazine): Earhart and, 57; Nichols and, 98, 99; Thaden in, 76
Squier, George O., 35
stabilizers, Quimby on, 19
Stanton, Elizabeth Cady, 57
The Steep Ascent (Lindbergh), 131–34, 137–38, 151
Steffens, Lincoln, 57
Stepanski, Lisa, 185n.44
Stinson, Katherine: achievements, 29; on aviation in America, 44; on aviation technology, 45; early training, 28–29; on flying, experience of, 46–47; flying career, 36–38; flying career end, 149; mentioned, 52, 64; Peary on, 48; recognition for, 42–43; writings by, 6, 42–43, 44
Stinson, Marjorie: achievements, 29; flying career, 38–39; flying career end, 149; as flying instructor, 39; recognition for, 42; writings by, 6, 43
Stinson School of Flying, 37, 38–39
Stinson sisters: mentioned, 58, 78; publicists for, 51
St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Thaden article in, 77–78
Stout Air Services, 75
strategic bombing in warfare, 80
Stultz, Wilmer (“Bill”), 50 stunt stories, 16
superstitions, of women fliers, 23
T
takeoffs, comparison with births, 133
Tarbell, Ida, 57
TAT (Transcontinental Air Transport), 58, 75 technology: Law and Stinson sisters and, 45; Lindbergh (Anne) on, 121, 152; Lindberghs’ relationship to, 123; nature versus, 127–28; of postwar aviation, 145–46; Quimby on, 19–20; Quimby’s interest in, 11
Tereshkova, Valentina, 116, 153
Texas Escadrille, 39
Thaden, Herbert von, 72, 79
Thaden, Louise, 71–93; achievements, 71, 72–73; aircraft used by, 147–48; in Bendix race, 55; commercial aviation, support for, 75–76; on Earhart, 62, 68;
Thaden, Louise (continued)
as Earhart successor, 147; early life and career, 72–74; on flying versus flight, 89–92; introduction to, 6; later life and legacy of, 92–93; mentioned, 52; National Air Marking Program and, 150; at National Women’s Air Derby, 53, 65, 90; Nichols, comparison with, 105; prominence, 70; as spokesperson for women aviators, 155; wartime activities, 150; on women in aviation, 88
Thaden, Louise, writings, 74–91; High, Wide, and Frightened (biography), 79, 84–85, 87–89; introduction to, 7, 74–76; on National Women’s Air Derby, 76–77; “Noble Experiment,” 79–86; on transcendence of flying, 86–87; on women in aviation, 76–79; on women in military aviation, 79–86
“Thoughts While Flying” (Nichols), 101
Tingmissartoq (Lindbergh plane), 119, 121, 126, 130
Todd, Lilian, 3
Tomboy of the Air (Blanche Stuart Scott), 3, 13, 14, 28
transcendence of flight, 59–61, 86–87, 93, 112
Transcontinental Air Transport (TAT), 58, 75
Transcontinental and Western Air (TWA), 75
transoceanic routes, Lindbergh on, 118
Travel Air Models 3000 and 4000, 72
Trippe, Juan, 118, 147
Trout, Evelyn (“Bobbi”), 52, 65
“Try Flying Yourself” (Earhart), 53, 58, 60
Turner, Frederick Jackson, 109, 112
Turner, Roscoe, 65, 147
Tuskegee Airmen, 2
20 Hrs. 40 Min. (Earhart), 52–53, 55–56

U
United Air Transport, 75
United States: American landscape, belief in power of, 108; aviation in, Quimby on, 19–20; culture, changes in, 50–52; exceptionalism, 110; urbanization, 29
United States Air Mail Service, 38
United States Army Air Service, 31
United States Army Aviation Reserve Corps, 35
United States Aviation Reserve Corps, 39
United States Navy, 34
U.S. Air Services, on Cochran, 147

V
Van Dyne, Edith, 141
Venice High School, Thaden’s address at, 78, 87
Vietnam War protests, 84–85
Villa Punitive Expedition, 39–40
Virginian (The Virginian character), 15–16
volplanes (demonstration maneuver), 12
Vought, Chance, 99

W Wagstaff, Patti, 87
war: strategic bombing and philosophy of, 80–81; Thaden’s views on, 79–86. See also World War I, legacy of; World War II
War Assets Administration, 143–44
Ware, Susan, 44, 45, 122, 153
Warren, D.C., 72
Washington Daily News, Nichols article in, 101
WASP (Women’s Airforce Service Pilots) program, 79, 145, 147
The Wave of the Future (Lindbergh), 137
weaponry advances, in World War I, 30
“We Girls Who Fly and What We’re Afraid Of” (Quimby), 23
Wessels, Florence, 71
West, power of, 108–9
Western Air Express, 75
Western Flying (journal), Thaden article in, 76
Western frontier, mystique of, link with mystique of flight, 15–16
“What Men Flyers Think of Women Pilots” (Brown), 7–8
Whitney, Cornelius Vanderbilt, 99
“Why Are Women Afraid to Fly?” (Earhart), 67
“Why I Am Not Afraid to Fly” (Stinson), 46–47
“Why Not Lady Astronauts?” (Nichols), 101
Willard, Charles F., 3, 4, 5
Willard, William A. P., 14
Williams, Al, 76
Wilson, Edmund, 134
winds, in Listen! The Wind, 126, 128 winged gospel: characteristics of, 139;
Earhart and, 59; Lindbergh and, 134;
Nichols and, 105, 110–12; in The Steep Ascent, 134; Thaden and, 91
The Winged Gospel (Corn), 46
Wings for Life (Nichols), 101, 103–5
Winnie Mae plane, 154
Wister, Owen, 15
“With the Intrepid Flyers” (Quimby), 19
Woman’s Home Companion, on Stinson (Marjorie), 42
“Woman’s Influence on Aviation” (Brown), 7 women: African American women pilots, 2–3; as astronauts, 101; Brown on impact of flying on, 8; Earhart on physical limitations of, 63; Earhart’s writings on equity for, 61–68; exclusion from space program, 116; expanded roles for (1920s), 51–52; Lindbergh on place of, 131–32; social duality of, 36; in the workplace, post-World War II, 145. See also feminism; gender roles and cultural stereotyping; women in aviation “Women and Aviation” (Thaden), 77
“Women and Courage” (Earhart), 66
“Women Automobile Enthusiasts” (Quimby), 11 women in aviation: fading prominence of, 152–53; post-World War II, 144–46; Quimby on, 20, 25–26; Quimby on superstitions of, 23; stereotypical attitudes toward, 65–66. See also gender roles and cultural stereotyping;
Ninety-Nines
Women in Space Earliest project (Project WISE), 114, 116 women pilots of early aviation: aviation age, end of, 140–56; Earhart, Amelia, 49–70; introduction to, 1–9; Lindbergh, Anne Morrow, 117–39; Nichols, Ruth, 94–116; Quimby, Harriet, 10–27; Thaden, Louise, 71–93; World War I, legacy of, 28–48. See also detailed entries for these concepts; Law, Ruth; Stinson, Katherine; Stinson, Marjorie women readers, Earhart’s writings for, 56–57
Women’s Airforce Service Pilots (WASP) program, 79, 145, 147
Women’s Auxiliary Ferrying Squadron (Army Air Corps), 79
Women’s Flying Training Detachment (Army Air Corps), 79
women’s movement, 29–30
“Women’s Share of Aviation Job Will Increase . . .” (Nichols), 100
Wood, Leonard, 34, 48
work-life balance, Thaden versus Earhart on, 92–93 workplace, women in, 51–52
World War I, legacy of, 28–48; beginning of, 29–30; combat pilots as face of war, 30; introduction to, 28–29; Law, Ruth, flying career, 31–36; male domination of aviation, 31–32; military, women in, 34–35; Stinson sisters, flying careers, 36–40; United States Army Air Service in, 31; women as pilots during era of, 6; women flyers on aviation in American life, 44–48; women flyers on gender discrimination, 40–44; women's movement, growing prominence of, 29–30; World War I, progress of, 29–31
World War II: aircraft used in, 140; bomber losses in, 83; women pilots' participation in, 78–79
Wright, Orville, 3, 32, 38
Wright Brothers, 3, 4–5
Wright Exhibition Company, 5
Yeager, Chuck, 148